expected back home on Madison Island GA Her small hometown holds the ghosts of choices past From the large Victorian she inherited from her beloved aunt to unresolved family issues and the boy turned man she left behind over two decades ago Starting a new career is hard enough but having to do so side by side with a person whose heart she broke is something she never accounted for Marcel Lewis is the owner of the only construction company on the island and is the key to making Cynthia s new dream a reality He never quite got over the abrupt departure of the first woman he ever loved Her return means he can finally get answers to the whys and what ifs that have plagued him Years have passed feelings have remained but some wounds have yet to heal The more time they spend together the walls of the old house aren t the only ones tumbling down But they can t construct a future without answering for decisions of the past Shanghai Love Catherine Vance Yeh,2006 In this fascinating book Catherine Yeh explores the Shanghai entertainment world at the close of the Qing dynasty Established in the 1850s outside of the old walled city the Shanghai Foreign Settlements were administered by Westerners and so were not subject to the strict authority of the Chinese government At the center of the dynamic new culture that emerged was the courtesan whose flamboyant public lifestyle and conspicuous consumption of modern goods set a style that was emulated by other women as they emerged from the inner quarters of traditional Chinese society Many Chinese visitors and sojourners were drawn to the Foreign Settlements Men of letters seeking a living outside of the government bureaucracy found work in the Settlements burgeoning print industry and formed the new class of urban intellectuals Courtesans fled from oppressive treatment and the turmoil of uprisings elsewhere in China and found unprecedented freedom in Shanghai to redefine themselves and their profession As the entertainment industry developed publications sprang up to report on and promote it Journalists and courtesans found that their interests increasingly coincided and the Settlements became a cosmopolitan playground Ritualized role play based on novels such as Dream of the Red Chamber elevated the status of courtesan entertainment and led to culturally rich interactions between courtesans and their clients As participants acted out the stories in public they introduced modern notions of love and romance that were radically at odds with the traditional roles of men and women Yet because social change arrived in the form of entertainment it met with little resistance Yeh shows how this fortuitous combination of people and circumstances rather than official decisions or acts created the first multicultural modern city in China With illustrations from newspapers novels travel guides and postcards as well as contemporary written descriptions of life in foreign driven fast paced cutting edge Shanghai this study traces the mutual influences among courtesans intellectuals and the city itself in creating a modern market oriented leisure culture in China Historians literary specialists art critics and social scientists will welcome this captivating foray into the world of late nineteenth century popular culture Blog Love Omega Glee Wred Fright,2012-07-19 Two bloggers fall in love while the world falls apart in Blog Love Omega Glee a comedic story set in 2012 with each chapter taking place on a different day counting down to the end of the Mayan calendar on 21 December 2012 when the world either ends or continues on much the same as before The two central characters are Jake Falls a twenty five year old unemployed man living with his parents who spends most of his time blogging about pro wrestling and Francine Apple a twenty nine year old barely employed woman who has dropped out of the American Dream to blog about various conspiracy theories Other characters abound as well including Jake s cats family and friends and Francine s coworkers housemates and neighbors The story is set in Cleaveland a decaying industrial city in the northern part of the USA and its suburbs on the shores of Lake Erie It s year 12 of a fascist regime and a severed head named Dick with a soft drink vending machine for a body is president dictator but no one much notices because they re too busy watching television and obsessing over their personal lives to worry about wars overseas the government swindling taxpayers and the rich stuffing their already stuffed pockets further with rapidly depreciating currency Some people find this worrisome but most people just change the channel Regardless even though in many ways for the average person life is still better than ever before in the history of human existence since Eden most people feel a vague sense of unease as if the delicate stitching of society is about to come undone at any moment pouring forth a centuries long buildup of too many human beings anarchy in the streets environmental collapse and lots and lots of really bad coffee Between existential dread economic worries presidential electioneering electronic domineering and large sweaty men in tights touching one another as entertainment there s Blog Love Omega Glee Blog Love Omega Glee was originally published on Wred Fright s Blog as a blognovel or a blovel Unlike most blognovels and blovels this one actually was finished instead of being abandoned Since the story has four parts depending on how you look at it it s either one really long novel or a series of four novels After being serialized on the blog and as a zine to a few select zinesters Fright trades with the novel was collected as an ebook One fun way to read it is a chapter a day during the course of a year especially a leap year like 2012 was or go for reading all 230 000 words or so in one lump The novel s been noted in American Pop Lit who called Fright an innovative writer of fun new pop lit a pioneer in the fight to revive American literature Attacking The Demi Puppets Cleveland Scene Cool Cleveland who wrote and perhaps best of all it s set in 2012 in a city called Cleaveland not to be confused wink wink with our city with the slightly different spelling hmm I wonder if there s a Cool Cleaveland email newsletter in the novel The Rumpus by author Mickey Hess who blurbed Goons and patriots get ready Wred Fright s new novel scowls at your perfect sentences There are gorgeous techniques and colorful dialogue the book s action mood the author himself There are things this novelist should be allowed to do that the rest of us are not Try This At Home by novelist Eddie Willson who wrote After experimenting with multiple narrators in his novel The Pornographic Flabbergasted Emus Wred Fright continues to develop his fiction in inventive ways Here he s posting a new novel in blog form Set in the near future the regularly updated narrative charts the lives of wrestling fixated loser Jake and militant waitress Francine I ve got some catching up to do but this is addictive stuff Here and elsewhere Wred s big strength is in characterization he s got a real gift for getting you rooting for characters whose lives have got a bit bent out of shape This tale s going to be taking up

The inspiring story of how a courageous mother s dedication and unconditional love for her son an artist on the autism spectrum helped him become an internationally renowned artist and double medal swimming champion at the Special Olympics      At the Age for Love Reginald N. Shires,2006-01-30

At the Age for Love A novel of Bangalore during World War II is an extraordinary story of a soldier s family waiting for his safe return from the Africa Front where he serves with a British tank unit pressing hard against the Germans in the desert of Libya The chronicle begins with the soldier Capt Edward Thompson saying goodbye to his wife Amelia and son Paddy and ends with his return at the end of the war The story narrated in incredible detail tells how the boy and his mother with their relatives and friends live in this hectic military city in South India where those who stay behind are swept along into the rushing wild stream of British history in India during a time of war The lives of these women and their children provide a bold story of Anglo India in this multihued Indian landscape where rogues and villains and the honest hard working church going form relationships in this bold saga as men and women cross family and racial boundaries in their search for love The city of Bangalore with its cluster of towns around British army barracks comes alive with memorable characters and this novel follows their tense and gripping relationships The ending where these fun loving characters come together in a frail boat on the peaceful Cauvery River at Seringapatnam near sunset has much to say about life and the human mystery and the vision it offers us as we live in a changing world
