

“Love / Hate” (Original Poem)

In the hush of twilight, your silhouette is a promise, gentle and sweet—
A dance of shadows where love and darkness meet.
Your whispers, once tender, now a chilling breeze,
A symphony, turned discord, has been seized.

Love, a flame once bright, now flickers in despair—
A tapestry unraveled, leaving threads bare.
The caress of your words, once a soothing balm,
Now a storm's cruel touch, a disquieting calm.

In the mirror of our moments, a transformation unkind—
A reflection of the heart, a soul confined.
That once ignited passion now a destructive fire,
Burning bridges, the cruel of desire.

Your love, a cage, glided and grand—
A prison of shadows, built by your hand.
Each tender moment, poisoned in doubt,
A Garden of Eden with serpents throughout.

But from the ashes of this love, a resolve takes flight—
A phoenix rising, embracing the night.
The hate, a catalyst, for a soul reborn,
A heart that heals, no longer torn.

In the end, love's essence, true and profound—
Not in the chains, but in freedom, is found.
A journey through hate to discover love's worth,
A love for oneself, the most precious on Earth.
