

Management Operations

Module 1 - The Management Story

The diagram above is a simplified representation of the organizational structure of a company. It shows the hierarchy of the organization, from the top level down to the bottom level. The top level is the Chief Executive Officer, who is responsible for the overall management of the company. Below the CEO are the President and Vice President, who are responsible for the day-to-day operations of the company. The President is responsible for the Sales, Marketing, and Finance departments, while the Vice President is responsible for the Operations and Human Resources departments. Each of these departments is further divided into smaller units, such as Sales Manager, Sales Representative, Marketing Manager, Marketing Representative, Finance Manager, Finance Representative, Operations Manager, Operations Representative, Human Resources Manager, and Human Resources Representative.

- (a) Identify the various departments and their respective functions.
- (b) Identify the various positions and their respective responsibilities.
- (c) Identify the various relationships and their respective nature.
- (d) Identify the various challenges and their respective solutions.
- (e) Identify the various opportunities and their respective potential.
