

QUICK HARVARD REFERENCING GUIDE

This guide provides practical examples to help you create references for information sources using the APU Harvard referencing style.

- In-text Referencing: involves citing references within the text of your work where you have used ideas or material from other sources.
- End-text referencing (also known as your Reference List): includes all materials used in your document. It provides the full information of reference sources necessary for a reader to locate and retrieve them.

IMPORTANT NOTE: When writing your reference list, do not present them in different section based on the types of information sources. All sources of information must be presenting in a single list in ascending alphabetical order.

The Theology of Dallas Willard Gary Black, 2013-08-06. Evangelical Christianity in the United States is currently in a dramatic state of change. Yet amidst this sometimes tumultuous religious environment, a rather unique blend of both ancient and contemporary Christian theology has found its way into the hearts and minds of emerging generations of Christians. The Theology of Dallas Willard both describes and conveys the essence of this increasingly popular and perhaps mediating view of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Blending both a prophetic critique with pastoral encouragement, Willard's unique understanding of the reality present within a life lived as a disciple of Jesus in the kingdom of God is attracting both new and traditional Christians to reconsider their faith.
