Interpersonal Communication Michelle Burch, 2004-08-31      The Handbook of Communication Training J Wallace, Dennis Becker, 2018-09-03

Communication remains a significant topic for job acquisition development and advancement. As such, there are no shortage of classes, seminars, and books written on the subject. However, there are few designed for the corporate consultant that are not aligned with some proprietary system, traditional academic classrooms, or author's speculation. These tend to be either inaccessible, questionable in their content, or specifically aligned with the producers' interests. So where can the Communication trainers and consultants go to focus on fundamental touchstone research and practices? The Handbook of Communication Training is a powerful template and first of its kind for communication practitioners and academicians who wish to strengthen their professional capabilities. It also acts as a guide and standard for consumers and clients of these services. The chapters within are an outgrowth of the National Communication Association's Training Development Division's desire to provide guidance, structure, and support for members and non-members alike. It is specifically targeted at those pursuing best practices regarding communication consulting, coaching, teaching, and training. The 7 Best Practices presented in this book represent capabilities that are foundational to the effective transfer of communication, promotion, and skill enhancement. As such, these practices and supporting chapters should appeal to novice and experts alike.

Public Health Communication Claudia Parvanta, David E. Nelson, Richard N. Harner, 2017-03-22

Designed for master's level study, Public Health Communication: Critical Tools and Strategies will prepare new graduates for any entry-level position in public health policy, advocacy, health communication, health promotion, social marketing, or community health education. Filled with practical examples, the book is also a valuable resource for those preparing for the CPH or CHES exams. Students will learn core concepts for planning a communication framework as well as key strategies for educating the public about health issues, including understanding and reporting science, communicating for policy and advocacy, and health literacy and numeracy. The book thoroughly explores classic theories of persuasion in communication, such as Extended Parallel Process Model, Inoculation, Sensation Value, and Cognitive Value. The most current forms of digital multimedia, interactive channels of communication, are examined.

Handbook of Instructional Communication Marian L. Houser, Angela Hosek, 2017-07-28

The Handbook of Instructional Communication offers a comprehensive collection of theory and research focusing on the role and effects of communication in instructional environments. Now in its Second Edition, the handbook covers an up-to-date array of topics that includes social identity, technology, and civility and dissent. This volume demonstrates how to understand, plan, and conduct instructional communication research, as well as consult with scholars across the communication discipline. Designed to address the challenges facing educators in traditional and nontraditional settings, this edition features a wealth of in-text resources, including directions for future research, suggested readings, and surveys for instructional assessment.

Chinese Organizations in Sub-Saharan Africa Terence Jackson, Lynette Louw, Dev K. Boojihawon, 2020-11-09 Trade between China and Africa is increasing year on year while the West increasingly debates the nature and implications of China's presence. Yet little research exists at the organizational and community levels. While western press reporting is overwhelmingly negative, African governments mostly welcome the Chinese presence. But what happens at the management level? How are Chinese organizations run? What are they bringing to communities? What is their impact on the local job market? How do they manage staff? How are they working with local firms? This book seeks to provide a theoretical framework for understanding Chinese organizations and management in Africa and to explore how their interventions are playing out at the organizational and community levels in sub-Saharan Africa. Based on rigorous empirical research exploring emerging themes in specific African countries, this book develops implications for management, knowledge education and training provision and policy formulation. Importantly, it seeks to inform future scholarship on China's management impact in the world generally, on Africa's future development and on international and cross-cultural management scholarship. Primarily aimed at scholars of international management with an interest in China and/or in China in Africa, this important book will also be of great interest to those working in the area of development studies, international politics and international relations.

The 5Cs Positive Teacher Interpersonal Behaviors Ali Derakhshan, 2022-11-16 This book argues that in line with the tenets of positive psychology in SLA and the rhetorical relational goal theory, positive teacher-student interpersonal relationships are deemed to be of great significance for empowering students to accomplish favorable academic outcomes and to successfully learn a second foreign language (L2), whether at its affective, behavioral or cognitive levels. Therefore, understanding the role of teacher interpersonal behaviors and their effect on students' learning gains in the domain of SLA is of utmost importance, particularly as this line of research is at its nascent stage of development and as a result, available empirical evidence is still inconclusive. To address this issue, drawing on the mixed methods design, this book mainly aims to first empirically scrutinize the role of 5Cs positive teacher interpersonal variables, i.e. care, clarity, closeness, confirmation and credibility, in L2 students' affective, behavioral and cognitive learning outcomes through the mediation of student-perceived learner empowerment in the L2 context of Iran. Second, it is intended to show how L2 teacher-educators, teachers and materials developers, among other key educational stakeholders, can facilitate the provision of interpersonally rich language learning environments with the ultimate goal of enhancing students' L2 learning.
