Managing Professional Service Delivery Barry M. Mundt, Francis J. Smith, Stephen D. Egan Jr., 2014-06-05. Although the nature of service delivery varies significantly from profession to profession, the way the service is delivered tends to be fairly consistent among professions or at least it should be. A step-by-step guide, Managing Professional Service Delivery: 9 Rules for Success, describes in detail how to achieve the internal discipline and control necessary to manage professional service engagements and long-term success in the professional services industry. It details engagement-tested methods for success at every step in delivering a professional service and includes real-life examples from a number of professional service organizations.

Here's What You Get: The steps for how to develop your niche in the marketplace. A structure for how to manage professional service delivery from start to finish. Tips on how to set up an environment and develop a culture that will result in superior service delivery such that the delivery process incorporates rigorous internal discipline and control. Discussion of rapid implementation and deployment concepts that can be attained without compromising internal discipline and control.

Examples of documentation standards for professional service proposals and deliverables reports Discussion of application of the 9 Rules for Success in two engagements conducted by the authors The authors draw on their many years of experience in the field of management science to lay out procedures tools and techniques that address each step of the life cycle of an engagement from definition of the services to be delivered to evaluation of the results with the client They take a back to basics approach that can be used in any size organization from a sole practitioner to a firm of up to 75 practitioners and support staff as well as larger firms that also may be experiencing sustainability issues with their process improvement initiatives The book guides you starting with the 9 Rules through the maze of obstacles in delivering your professional service
