The Faces Behind the Chains: Thousands of Interviews, Memoirs, Life Stories of Former Slaves is an extraordinary anthology that traverses a multitude of narratives surrounding slavery, freedom, and identity in the English speaking world. The collection spans a gamut of literary styles from the gripping immediacy of firsthand accounts to reflective memoirs and socially driven treatises. Standout pieces include chilling recollections and enlightening narratives that offer both harrowing truths and moments of resilience and hope, providing an intimate tapestry of human experience against the backdrop of systemic oppression. This collection captures the emotional and historical spectrum of the slave experience, making it indispensable for understanding the complex legacies of slavery. The compendium brings together a diverse group of voices, including those of Aphra Behn, Frederick Douglass, Harriet Jacobs, and Booker T. Washington, whose contributions have significantly shaped discussions about slavery and its aftermath. These authors, hailing from various historical and cultural backgrounds, offer invaluable insights into the socio-political dynamics of their times. Many of them were pivotal figures in movements like abolitionism and civil rights, and their narratives collectively amplify the chorus of struggle and defiance against the forces of dehumanization, forging a crucial link to contemporary understandings of race and justice. Readers are provided with a unique scholarly opportunity to explore a rich amalgamation of perspectives that enlightens and educates. The anthology serves as a profound educational resource and a catalyst for discussion, navigating through the converging paths of personal stories and broader historical currents. It enriches the reader's comprehension of the multifaceted nature of slavery and freedom with its profound collection of voices, promising to inspire reflection and foster dialogue. This volume is an essential addition to any scholarly library, offering a compelling invitation to engage with some of the most significant narratives of human endurance and moral courage.

Fathers, Families and Relationships Caroline Gatrell, Esther Dermott, 2018-03-14

In this exciting book, leading fatherhood scholars from Europe and Scandinavia offer unique insights into how to research fathers and fatherhood in contemporary society. Outlining research methods in detail, including examples of large-scale studies, online research, surveys, and visual and aural methods, they explore how each approach worked in practice, what the benefits and pitfalls were, and what the wider and future application of the chosen research methods might be. Covering a wide range of subjects from non resident fathers to father engagement in child protection this major contribution to the field also critiques and addresses the notion that fathers especially young fathers can be hard to reach Essential reading for both students and policy makers in a fast growing area of interest The Practice of Field Instruction in Social Work Marion Bogo, Elaine Vayda, 1998-12-15

This book is designed to guide social workers in their work as field instructors It is unique in that it presents a conceptual system that unites social work theory taught in the classroom to actual practice in a variety of community settings This system gives the field instructor a model to guide the student through a process that focuses attention on common elements of all social work practice situations Many examples are presented to illustrate the application of this process In addition the text incorporates current research and experience on pre practicum preparation the importance of the initial meeting with students the relationship between field instructor and student guidance and monitoring of the learning process evaluation procedures legal liability and ethical issues and working with students where age experience gender differing ethnicities or the presence of a disability may need consideration Field education is examined bearing in mind the multiple and rapidly changing contexts of social work and social welfare policies and practices university and service organizations and professional and legal requirements The Practice of Field Instruction in Social Work Theory and Process is an invaluable text for anyone preparing to become a field instructor for current field instructors and for faculty members responsible for field coordination The information presented here is based on current research and teaching experience The model presented in the book has been used with success in undergraduate and graduate programs throughout Canada and in other countries
