Contextualising Difficulties in Literacy Development Gavin Reid, Janet Soler, Janice Wearmouth, 2014-06-03 This book provides a range of interdisciplinary and international perspectives on difficulties in literacy development. The high profile team of contributors provide ethical and policy discussions as well as contextualising individual and collective strategies to addressing difficulties in literacy development. The chapters break new ground by encompassing a wide range of perspectives related to critical literacy, socio cultural, cognitive and psychological viewpoints to help inform practice, policy and research into literacy difficulties. Issues addressed include the different ways literacy can be conceptualised through social science based disciplinary perspectives, the issues at the centre of current public and professional debates surrounding literacy difficulties and how these have impacted upon pedagogical responses, the impact of these wider political and social issues on individual students. This reader forms the basis of the Open University's Difficulties in Literacy Development course but will also be of interest to postgraduate students, teachers, researchers, education professionals and policymakers who are keen to address difficulties in literacy development.

All Australian children's books published from 1989 to 2000 are listed in this essential reference for those who appreciate the richness of Australian writing for children. Following the same format as volumes 1 and 2 in this series, chronicling books published as early as 1774, entries include publishing details, the number of illustrations and the awards received for each book. This third volume follows the continuing careers of authors such as Mem Fox, Bob Graham, Robin Klein and Paul Jennings and traces changes in the popularity of Australian themes and settings to identify publishing trends. Varied cultural aspects of modern day life are shown from globalization, commercialism and the rise of the middle class in Asia to desktop publishing, outcome based school curricula and the modern obsession with celebrities, all of which are reflected in the type and quantity of books produced by Australian writers and publishers.
