

Below are the steps to take before starting a new business.

1. Choose a business name and location

1.1 Choose a business name

A business name is the first thing people will see when they visit your website. It should be easy to remember and spell, and it should reflect the nature of your business.

1.2 Choose a location

There are many factors to consider when choosing a location for your business, including the size of the building, the cost of rent, and the availability of parking.

1.3 Choose a legal structure

There are three main legal structures for businesses:

1.1 Sole proprietorship

- You own the business and are responsible for all debts and liabilities.
- You have complete control over the business.
- You have no employees.

1.2 Partnership

- You own the business with one or more partners.
- You share the profits and losses of the business.
- You have no employees.

1.3 Corporation

- You own the business and are responsible for all debts and liabilities.
- You have complete control over the business.
- You have no employees.

2. Register your business

2.1 Choose a business name

- Choose a name that is easy to remember and spell.
- Check to see if the name is already taken by another business.
- Check to see if the name is available as a domain name.

- Register your business with the state or local government.

2.2 Choose a location

2.2.1 Choose a location

- Choose a location that is easy to find and has good parking.

- Choose a location that is close to your target market.

2.3 Choose a legal structure

- Choose a legal structure that is appropriate for your business.
