Strategic Communication for Non-Profit Organisations
Evandro Oliveira, Ana Duarte Melo, Gisela Goncalves, 2019-03-28

Communication in the public sphere as well as within organizational contexts has attracted the interest of researchers over the past century Current forms of citizen engagement and community development partly enabled through digital communication have further enhanced the visibility and relevance of non profit communication These are performed by the civil society which is the organized expression of the values and interests of society Castells 2008 in the public sphere Non profit communication feeds the public sphere as the discursive processes in a complex network of persons institutionalized associations and organizations whereas those discourses are a civilized way of disagreeing openly about essential matters of common concern Jensen 2002 Despite the relevance in the public sphere non profit communication was never properly defined within communication research The aim of the present book is to offer an overview and report on Strategic Communication for Non Profit Organisations and the Challenges and Alternative Approaches Considering the assumption that a key principle of strategic communication is the achievement of organisational goals the majority of research developed in the field has used business environments to develop theories models empirical insights and case studies Here we take a step towards new approaches centred on the concept of non profit in various dimensions and from various perspectives showing the diversity and complexity around this subject and at the same time the need of further theoretical and empirical work that provides frameworks and also tools for further understanding of the phenomena

Indian Classical Music and the Gramophone, 1900-1930
Vikram Sampath, 2022-06-30

In 1902 The Gramophone Company in London sent out recording experts on expeditions across the world to record voices from different cultures and backgrounds All over India it was women who embraced the challenge of overcoming numerous social taboos and aesthetic handicaps that came along with this nascent technology Women who took the plunge and recorded largely belonged to the courtesan community called tawaifs and devadasis in North and South India respectively Recording brought with it great fame brand recognition freedom from exploitative patrons and monetary benefits to the women singers They were to become pioneers of the music industry in the Indian sub continent However despite the pioneering role played by these women their stories have largely been forgotten Contemporaneous with the courtesan women adapting to recording technology was the anti nautch campaign that sought to abolish these women from the performing space and brand them as common prostitutes A vigorous renaissance and arts revival movement followed leading to the creation of a new classical paradigm in both North Indian Hindustani and South Indian Carnatic classical music This resulted in the standardization universalization and institutionalization of Indian classical music This newly created classical paradigm impacted future recordings of The

Gramophone Company in terms of a shift in genres and styles Vikram Sampath sheds light on the role and impact of The Gramophone Company's early recording expeditions on Indian classical music by examining the phenomenon through a sociocultural historical and musical lens The book features the indefatigable stories of the women and their experiences in adapting to recording technology The artists from across India featured are Gauhar Jaan of Calcutta Janki Bai of Allahabad Zohra Bai of Agra Malka Jaan of Agra Salem Godavari Bangalore Nagarathnamma Coimbatore Thayi Dhanakoti of Kanchipuram Bai Sundarabai of Pune and Husna Jaan of Banaras
