Ibuanyidanda Innocent I. Asouzu, 2007 An Unconventional History of Western Philosophy Karen Warren, 2009-01-16 In this new account of Western philosophy throughout the past 2 600 years Karen J Warren has paired sixteen women philosophers alongside their historical male contemporaries in conversations on philosophy An overview essay together with chapter introductions primary readings and expert commentaries offer a rich description and evaluation of each philosopher s vital contribution to Western philosophy Jacket

The Quest for God in the Work of Borges Annette U. Flynn, 2011-11-03 This book argues that the quest for God though largely unheeded by the critical canon was a major and enduring preoccupation for Borges This is shown through careful analysis both of his essays with their emphasis on his philosophical theological explorations and of the narrative articulations which are his stories It is in the poetry of his middle and closing years however that Borges search is most manifest as it is no longer obscured Spanning different periods of his life and different literary genres Borges work attests to a maturing and evolving quest The book reveals Borges engagement as an active and evolving process and its chronological structure allows the reader to trace his thought over time Flynn shows that the spiritual component in Borges writing drives key texts from the 1920s to the 1980s Offering an interpretation that unlocks a fuller significance of his work she shows how Borges reflections on time and identity are symptomatic of a deeper spiritual searching which can only be answered by a Divine Absolute

Ethics Rev. James L. Breed,

Ph.D.,2017-08-10 Ethics by Rev James L Breed Ph D Ethics An Introduction to the Western Schools of Thought in Moral Philosophy is an introductory textbook in moral philosophy It provides an outline of the main schools of thought in the Western philosophical traditions with a brief analysis of each school of thought and the views of its critics This text is designed to cover the major theories and schools of thought in moral philosophy the divine command theory the deontological theories natural law theory virtue ethics other teleological theories including egoism and hedonism the ethics of community utilitarianism existentialist ethics individualism and radical individualism relativism realist and absolutist theories feminist ethics environmentalist ethics the focus on the need for individual judgment and moral commitment and contextualism Discourse, Power, and Resistance Down Under Mark Vicars,Tarquam McKenna,Julie White,2012-10-26 This edited collection is an eclectic and provocative volume taken from presentations that reflect the scholarship of the inaugural AQR DPR Down Under conference that was held in Cairns in 2011 in Australia This was a ground breaking conference that brought together scholars researchers and practitioners from across Australia UK Japan Italy Finland New Zealand Luxembourg South Africa Vietnam Malaysia Tanzania and Mexico The theme of the conference represented at the conference and in this volume was that of Politicizing Qualitative Research Delegates presented papers that sought to challenge research practices that too often can delegitimize Other ways of knowing Confronting disrupting and resisting the epistemological common sense way of doing research within the academy can be a risky business and is often a fraught and contested endeavor However as the papers in this volume illustrate contestation promises opportunities for re perceiving re interpreting and productively disrupting the orthodoxies of disciplinarity Many thanks to Ignacio Rojas whose patient assistance and expertise as an artist in designing the cover proved invaluable in bringing this book to print Using Art Media in Psychotherapy Michelle L. Dean,2016-01-22 Using Art Media in Psychotherapy makes a thoughtful and contextual argument for using graphic art materials in psychotherapy providing historical context for art materials and their uses and incorporating them with contemporary practices and theories Written with an analytic focus many of the psychological references nod to Jung and post Jungian thought with keen attention to image and to symbolic function This book jettisons the idea of reductionist cookbook approaches and instead provides an integrated and contextual understanding of the origins of each art form as well as an insightful use for each in its application in mental health healing practices Using Art Media in Psychotherapy gives clinicians and students alike the tools they need to offer psychologically minded and clinically astute choices that honor their clients Confucian Feminism Li-Hsiang Lisa Rosenlee,2024-08-22 In Confucian Feminism Li Hsiang Lisa Rosenlee expands the theoretical horizons of feminism by using characteristic Confucian terms methods and concerns to interrogate the issue of gender oppression and liberation With its theoretical roots in the Confucian textual tradition this is the first re imagining of Confucianism that enriches and is enriched by feminism Incorporating distinctive Confucian conceptual tools such as ren benevolent governance xiao filial care you friendship li ritual and datong great community Rosenlee creates an ethic of care that is feminist and Confucian At the same time she confronts the issue of gender inequity in Confucian thought Her hybrid feminist theory not only broadens the range of feminist understandings of the roots of gender oppression but opens up what we believe constitutes gender liberation for women transnationally and transculturally Here is a practical ethic that uses Confucianism to navigate the contours of inequality in everyday life A Book About Books, Volume II of III E. H. Bernstein, 2020-05-04 This book is Volume II of a three volume book plus accompanying website www.bookaboutbooks.com which adds to subjects already in the book or presents some books and subjects not contained in the books The other volumes are available from the same booksellers as this volume Note this 2024 publication date is a corrected version of the original version of this volume published in 2020 A Book about Books discusses what nonfiction books and subjects the author believes are important to know about This book tries to point to problems in how we live and to see if books have any answers Even though the books are complete the author will update the website periodically in the future E H Bernstein is a former librarian turned author The subtitle of the book describes the author's objective A handbook in three volumes to a choice of essential books writers and subjects in order to understand the world we live in about big questions and possible answers about books and writers that may improve people's lives about neglected writers and other books and subjects A Book about Books attempts to share what the author has learned from nearly 50 years of nonfiction reading and to provide the reader with samples of the most important authors and subjects from that reading While the book is based on research it is intended to be a handbook or guide by trying to make that research understandable to the general reader and to students and for teachers by pointing to what the author believes is missing from today's education A curriculum proposal for college teachers is on the author's website Note about how the volumes are related each chapter is on a separate subject So the chapters can be read individually but the full message requires reading all the volumes Volume I is important but preliminary to the more important Volumes II and III Note also that the book is not just about books since other sources are also mentioned Note that the author believes we should listen to many voices so the book draws on many types of writers from different times and countries The author says A contemporary writer once said that one of the purposes of writing is that books should be useful I hope that my book will be of use Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association, 2011 List of members in v 1
