Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa's fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women's interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa The Oxford Handbook of the Science of Science Communication Kathleen Hall Jamieson, Dan M. Kahan, Dietram Scheufele, 2017 On topics from genetic engineering and mad cow disease to vaccination and climate change this Handbook draws on the insights of 57 leading science of science communication scholars who explore what social scientists know about how citizens come to understand and act on what is known by science

European Islamophobia Report 2015 Enes Bayraklı, Farid Hafez, 2016-03-23 The Report is an annual report which is presented for the first time this year It currently comprises 25 national reports regarding each state and the tendencies of Islamophobia in each respective country The Ultimate Vaccine Timeline Shaz Khan, 2025-05-13 Dive deep into a comprehensive fact packed history of vaccines that includes information on vaccine manufacturers and their evolution over time Browse through an extensive series of verifiable and documented facts on vaccines For well over a century vaccines have been routinely recommended to billions of people worldwide mostly children and babies With an ever increasing portfolio of vaccines using novel technologies on the global market it is important now more than ever to consolidate a chronology of facts relating to human vaccination Considering the current climate of censorship around vaccines this publication will contribute to an expanded understanding of this important medical intervention Spanning over fifteen hundred years this thoroughly researched timeline is an educational tool for any researcher student doctor scientist parent or curious human being wishing to gain a broader perspective and insight into the complex and vast landscape of human vaccination From smallpox to shingles tetanus to tuberculosis hepatitis B to HPV discover when where and by whom these vaccines were invented and marketed Including a historical timeline of pharmaceutical company beginnings mergers and acquisitions since the seventeenth century this illustrated reference book shines a light on the controversial subject of vaccines and their makers Selling School Catherine DiMartino, Sarah Butler Jessen, 2018 This timely book outlines the growth and development of marketing and branding practices in public education The authors highlight why these practices have become important across key fields within public education including leadership and governance budgeting and finance strategic initiatives use of new technology the role of teachers in marketing and messaging From an organizational perspective they explore the implications of edvertising on the democratic mission of public education especially as related to issues of equity and access for students who have been historically underserved The authors argue that expansive marketing campaigns unequal funding sources and lack of regulation are quickly and profoundly reshaping public education without the benefit of robust research or public debate Selling School is important reading for principals navigating increasingly marketized school systems for policymakers constructing legislation and for parents negotiating school choice DiMartino and Jessen are right in their prescient discussion of the muddling of public and private models in public education through marketing From the Foreword by Christopher Lubieniski Indiana University Bloomington This book pioneers new ground as the authors move the literature on the marketization of education into a more nuanced analysis of how branding discourses and practices have entered the logic of public schooling Gary L Anderson New York University Essential for readers interested in learning about how private sector practices affect the functions of public schools Janelle Scott University of California Berkeley

Public Investment Plan, 2016

Reconfiguring Refugees Alise Coen, 2024-08-20 Shows how domestic identity narratives and political polarization shape the sociopolitical response to refugees The United States once played a major role in global refugee resettlement accounting for nearly two thirds of all refugees resettled worldwide However in recent years it has dramatically cut refugee admissions and implemented discriminatory policies on refugee protection These policies have been justified amid intensifying xenophobic rhetoric against specific groups In this book Alise Coen explains why the monumental shift around refugee resettlement occurred particularly in response to the high profile conflict in Syria She shows how refugees and broader global migration debates became contentious political issues in the US revealing the many ways in which refugees have been increasingly weaponized as partisan symbols by Democrats and Republicans The book calls attention to the power of rhetoric and identity narratives and shows how the language used to talk about refugees fuels divisive policies From the years leading up to the Trump administration s policies targeting Muslim refugees to debates during the Biden administration around who deserves access to asylum Coen examines how ideas about race gender and nativism shape US approaches toward migration As arguments for closing the border continue to gain traction and politicians continue to use global displacement issues to further their agendas Reconfiguring Refugees explores the ideas meanings and policies that undermine and influence US responsibility sharing

Parliamentary Debates India. Parliament. Rajya Sabha, 2017-02

Pandemic Fissures Suddhabrata Deb Roy, 2024-08-09 This book analyses India s response to COVID 19 using an intersectional framework that highlights the roles of the central government regional governments and community organisations both formal and informal The volume brings forward the immense potential embedded within collective communitarian formations by exploring themes such as disaster capitalism municipal socialism civic capitalism apocalypse or disaster communism and Marxist humanism in relation to the management strategies exhibited by the Indian government towards the COVID 19 pandemic It underscores the necessity for imagining a scenario where egalitarian and socially just policies replace the dominance of capitalism Part of the Academics Politics and Society in the Post COVID World series the book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of sociology political studies cultural studies social anthropology South Asia studies pandemic studies and postcolonial studies

The China Race Fei-Ling Wang, 2024-02-01 Following its two prequels The China Order 2017 and The China Record 2023 this book analyzes the China Race the global competition for power and leadership between the US led West and the People s Republic of China Considering the organizational options and optimality with respect to human civilization Fei Ling Wang discusses two alternative world orders the Westphalian System of international relations and a centralized world political unification Both are feasible and existed before but with drastically different desirability The rising power of the PRC state has consistently and methodically sought to recenter and reorganize the world to safeguard and promote its autocracy and ultimately build a world empire Examining the nature aims means accomplishments pitfalls and failures of Beijing's foreign policy and the state of and developments in Sinology and the West's China policy Wang focuses on the existential PRC USA rivalry and proposes a holistic strategic framework discussing three ranked objectives for the West and the world including the Chinese people to manage benefit from and prevail in the China Race
