VanSledright, 2013-07-31 Assessing Historical Thinking and Understanding advocates for a fundamental change in how educators think about making sense of learners developing cognition and understanding in history Author Bruce VanSledright argues that traditional and typical standardized testing approaches are seldom up to the task of measuring the more complex understandings students are asked to attain as they cannot fully assess what the student knows Rather he points forward along a path toward changes in learning teaching and assessing that closely aligns with the Common Core State Standards He delves into the types of history knowledge the standards require illustrates how they can be applied in use in history learning contexts and theorizes how the standards might fit together cognitively to produce deep historical understandings among students in teaching learning contexts By providing a variety of assessment strategies and items that align with the standards and identifying rich useful assessment rubrics applicable to the different types of assessments he offers an important resource for social studies teachers and curriculum writers alike

Lane,2025-06-09 From Jim Crow to the Last Best West In 1910 twelve African American families from Oklahoma journeyed north to claim the promise of a better life in the Canadian West. Among them was Julius Caesar Lane, a former enslaved man whose legacy and that of his family is intertwined with the history of Saskatchewan's first Black community. The settlement anchored by Shiloh Baptist Church, now a designated Provincial Heritage Property near Maidstone, became a symbol of resilience, faith, and determination in the face of racial barriers. In this deeply personal and meticulously researched account, Leander K. Lane, descendant of Julius Caesar Lane, traces his ancestors' steps through the tumultuous aftermath of slavery in the United States to Canada, documenting the challenges and successes they experienced in their new home. Drawing from oral histories, historical texts, and never before consulted archival documents, Lane vividly brings to life the untold story of the Shiloh community from their origins in the American South to their enduring impact in Western Canada. This compelling narrative is both a heartfelt family memoir and a vital piece of Canadian history, shedding light on the rich heritage of Black prairie homesteaders and the indomitable spirit of the Shiloh People      Educart ICSE 10 Years Solved Papers Class 10 2026 - Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Literature in English, English Language, History & Civics, Geography, Hindi and Computer Application for (2025-26 Boards Exams) Educart,2025-05-28 What Do You Get ICSE 10 Years Solved Papers for 11 subjects Educart ICSE 10 Years Solved Papers Class 10 2026 Based on the 2025-26 latest ICSE Syllabus Includes 10 Years of Previous Question Papers for 11 Subjects Detailed explanations for all objective questions Out of syllabus ICSE previous year questions are clearly marked Related Theory and Caution have been added to enhance understanding Why Choose This Book Contains a decade of actual board papers of ICSE Practice with the real papers for time management sharpen writing skills and reduce exam anxiety      Law in the Roman Provinces Kimberley Czajkowski, Benedikt Eckhardt, Meret Strothmann,2020-06-10 The study of the Roman Empire has changed dramatically in the last century with significant emphasis now placed on understanding the experiences of subject populations rather than a sole focus on the Roman imperial elites. Local experiences and interactions between periphery and centre are an intrinsic component in our understanding of the empire's function over and against the earlier top-down model. But where does law fit into this new decentralized picture of empire? This volume brings together internationally renowned scholars from both legal and historical backgrounds to study the operation of law in each region of the Roman Empire from Britain to Egypt from the first century BCE to the end of the third century CE. Regional specificities are explored in detail alongside the emergence of common themes and activities in a series of case studies that together reveal a new and wide-ranging picture of law in the
