Explore the significance of conflict in this extract... Examine the way that Winterson shapes meanings (2)

Following WW2 authors of modern literature began to present themes of individuals struggling for identity in conflict with society. This is because society was experiencing upheaval due to there being a conflict between traditional and more modern ideologies. This may be why, in Oranges are not the only fruit, Winterson presents the narrator as in conflict with the society, or more precisely, the Pentecostal society in conflict with her- due to her sexuality. Often when an individual is in conflict with society they are presented as being isolated and alienated for reasons beyond their control. By choosing to narrate from the perspective of someone who is isolated, due to being in conflict with society- Winterson continues to make identity struggles relevant, and gives a voice to those who go without them, especially in the time the novel was set.

Importantly, Winterson uses religious language in order to convey the conflict between the society the narrator is in and her, with the language used to oppress and isolate her. Throughout the extract religious concepts are used, but with increasing use when the Pastor is trying to justify his actions towards her, such as "Satan" and "deceit". Both these words have connotations of the supernatural, which may show the Pastor's lack of understanding of homosexuality, but also conveys his disgust that they could consider to 'be this'.

Significantly, Winterson presents the extract more like society is in conflict with the narrator, rather than the narrator going out of her way to be in conflict with everyone else. This is displayed by the narrator's confusion
