Longman Academic Series 4 Teacher Manual:

Longman Academic Writing Series 4 SB with Online Resources Alice Oshima, Ann Hogue, Lara Ravitch, 2016-09-19

The Longman Academic Writing Series helps develop student writing from basic composition of sentences and paragraphs to academic essays and research papers. At each level, students are offered guidance in the complete writing process from prewriting to revision and are provided with clear explanations, extensive practice, and consistent coverage of sentence mechanics and grammar. Highlights: Step by step approach helps students produce a well organized, clearly developed portfolio that is the foundation of academic coursework. Realistic writing models guide writers while clear explanations supported by examples help students through typical rough spots. Extensive practice helps students assimilate writing skills to learn to write with accuracy and confidence. Timed writing activities provide a plan for writing paragraphs on tests. Interactive tasks such as pair and group work allow students to receive peer feedback on their individual writing. Level 5 offers more advanced guidance in the writing of essays and research papers. New Essential Online Resources include grammar for writing and sentence structure activities, teacher support material, teacher's manual, and assessments.

The Digital Turn in Higher Education David Kergel, Birte Heidkamp, Patrik Kjærdsdam, Telléus, Tadeusz Rachwal, Samuel Nowakowski, 2017-10-24. The book deals with the digital turn in higher education. One aim of this book is to address the challenge by providing a multi-disciplinary international perspective on higher education during the digital turn. It presents epistemological, ethical, and theoretical approaches and best practice examples from universities in different countries using different learning strategies. The book can be understood as an international and interdisciplinary collection providing heuristic strategies for handling the digitalization of higher education in theory and in practice.

Handbook of Foreign Language Communication and Learning Karlfried Knapp, Barbara Seidlhofer, 2009-12-15. This volume focuses on how far the policies, principles, and practices of foreign language teaching and learning are or can be informed by theoretical considerations and empirical findings from the linguistic disciplines. Part I deals with the nature of foreign language learning in general, while Part II explores issues arising from linguistic, socio-political, cultural, and cognitive perspectives. Part III and IV then consider the different factors that have to be taken into account in designing the foreign language subject and the various approaches to pedagogy that have been proposed. Part V finally addresses questions concerning assessment of learner proficiency and the evaluation of courses designed to promote it. Key features: provides a state-of-the-art description of different areas in the context of foreign language communication and learning; presents a critical appraisal of the relevance of the field; offers solutions to everyday language-related problems with contributions from renowned experts.
