

1. Research child development and delineate when certain concepts and advancements happen in youth then discuss what effect child development might have on the boys in LOTF.

2. Research the effects of war on children (physically and emotionally; long term and/or short term). Consider also the use of child soldiers. Then discuss whether or not the actions of the children in LOTF can be justified by the effects of war.

3. Research the growth of gangs in America and the reason for the growth and discuss whether the boys in LOTF emulate gang development and discuss why or why not.

4. Research youth violence and its reasons and outcomes and discuss whether or not the boys in LOTF are simply in coincidence with the research or not and state why.

5. Research bullying and discuss whether the actions of the boys in LOTF can be seen as a result of bullying and state evidence for your argument.

6. Can morality be enforced by stringent laws? Research different sociological theories and ideas about the necessity of laws and law enforcement. Consider how the morality of the boys was influenced by a lack of laws.

7. Research the different types of leaders and government systems. Discuss what type of government and leader was present on the island. Use evidence to support your ideas.

8. Research the history of post traumatic stress disorder and discuss how the societal and medical treatment has changed overtime. Connect it to the the boys in LOTF and discuss how they might be affected by PTSD.

9. Explore the concept of good and evil; what defines each? How does it differ depending on the society or religion? Is there such thing as absolute evil? How do the boys on the island represent each concept?

10. Research the following concepts: the ego, superego, and id. Which psychologists have played a major role in identifying these concepts and how are they manifested in society? How are they represented by the boys in LOTF?
