Love Beyond Words City Lights San Francisco 1:

Love Beyond Words, City Lights Book I, 2015 She thought the best love affairs only happened in books Traumatized by the deaths of her parents three years ago Natalie Hewitt lives an introverted life taking college classes during the day and working as a barista in a coffee shop at night A passionate reader she uses the writing of the world famous and reclusive novelist Rafael Melendez Mend n to assuage her grief His words are the only refuge from her pain and she is certain his characters are better company than anyone she could meet in real life Julian Kova is a millionaire and a recluse He lives a life of self imposed seclusion in order to protect a secret and honor his dying mother s last wish He walks into Natalie s caf one summer evening and both of their lives are forever altered by the intense slow burn love that blooms between them But Julian s secret is both the most wonderful revelation Natalie could possibly imagine and the very thing that could tear them apart

Surrealism and Cinema Michael Richardson, 2006-03 Tracing the work of Luis Bu nuel Jacques Pr evert Nelly Kaplan Walerian Borowczyk Jan Svankmajer Raul Ruiz and Alejandro Jodorowsky this work charts the history of surrealist film making in both Europe and Hollywood from the 1920s to 2005

Beyond Naturalism William W. Demastes, 1988-11-15 Demastes draws a distinction between the genus realism and its central species naturalism He studies from an historical perspective the growth of realism into the foremost aesthetic form in 20th century theater and focuses on American playwrights who have used realism to challenge outdated and essentially naturalist thought thereby infusing realism with fresh and contemporary perspectives of the world around them Demastes analyzes the unique contributions of David Rabe David Mamet Sam Shepard Charles Fuller Beth Henley and Marsha Norman and assesses their overall critical reception ISBN 0 313 26320 5 35 95

Philosophy and Love Linnell Secomb, 2007-05-11 Philosophy and Love introduces historical and contemporary philosophical reflections on love It brings together philosophy with cultural analysis to provide an accessible and engaging account of conventional theories of love as well as the controversial reformulations evident in same sex desire cross cultural love and internet romance Starting with Plato but focusing especially on contemporary European philosophy this book introduces figures such as Nietzsche Beauvoir Irigaray Derrida and Fanon Explaining these philosophical approaches in clear and accessible terms Philosophy and Love also engages with cultural productions ranging from Sappho to Frankenstein and from Hiroshima Mon Amour to Desperate Housewives enabling an exchange between philosophical and cultural theories Love stories are also central to this interdisciplinary book revealing the ethical and the political as well as the personal implications of lover s discourses Embracing both the sentimental and the political this deconstructive reading discloses the paradoxes conflicts and intensities of the love relation

Beyond the Nation Martin Joseph Ponce, 2012-02-01 Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series Beyond the Nation charts an expansive history of Filipino literature in the U S forged within the dual contexts of imperialism and migration from the early twentieth century into the twenty first Martin Joseph Ponce theorizes and enacts a queer diasporic reading practice that attends to the complex crossings of race and nation with gender and sexuality Tracing the conditions of possibility of Anglophone Filipino literature to U S colonialism in the Philippines in the early twentieth century the book examines how a host of writers from across the century both imagine and address the Philippines and the United States inventing a variety of artistic lineages and social formations in the process Beyond the Nation considers a broad array of issues from early Philippine nationalism queer modernism and transnational radicalism to music influenced and cross cultural poetics gay male engagements with martial law and popular culture second generational dynamics and the relation between reading and revolution Ponce elucidates not only the internal differences that mark this literary tradition but also the wealth of expressive practices that exceed the terms of colonial complicity defiant nationalism or conciliatory assimilation Moving beyond the nation as both the primary analytical framework and locus of belonging Ponce proposes that diasporic Filipino literature has much to teach us about alternative ways of imagining erotic relationships and political communities A Poetics of Resistance Jeff

Conant,2010-08-01 Part literary criticism part media analysis and part marketing handbook A Poetics of Resistance provides a refreshingly new take on the Zapatistas While much has been written on the history of the Zapatista insurgency and on the communiqués of Subcomandante Marcos very little has been said about Zapatismo the ideologies organizing methodologies and communications strategies of the movement The appeal of the Zapatistas and their survival has as much to do with their goals as with the compelling and wildly effective language and aesthetics they've used to convey their vision Weaving together varied elements of poetics and symbolism Zapatismo has emerged as something entirely new a resolutely radical public relations campaign for human liberation The first postmodern revolution presented itself to the world through a complex and evolving web of propaganda using a wide range of media the colorful communiqués of Marcos the ski masks uniforms toy dolls and other accoutrements of the insurgent or sympathizer and murals songs and other popular cultural forms Employing persuasive publicity myths and symbols the Zapatistas both communicated their message and developed a clear aesthetic that could contain many messages at once and self replicate on a global scale Jeff Conant offers an engaging and innovative tool for organizers and educators to understand how the Zapatistas strategy works and to continue developing and refining their effective messages of participatory bottom up revolution Jeff Conant is a writer and activist in the San Francisco Bay Area and the author of A Community Guide to Environmental Health Invented Lives, Imagined

Communities William H. Epstein,R. Barton Palmer,2016-06-06 How Hollywood biopics both showcase and modify various notions of what it means to be an American Biopics films that chronicle the lives of famous and notorious figures from our national history have long been one of Hollywood's most popular and important genres offering viewers various understandings of American national identity Invented Lives Imagined Communities provides the first full length examination of US biopics focusing on key releases in American cinema while treating recent developments in three fields cinema studies particularly the history of Hollywood national identity studies dealing with the American experience and scholarship devoted to modernity and postmodernity Films discussed include Houdini Patton The Great White Hope Bound for Glory Ed Wood Basquiat Pollock Sylvia Kinsey Fur Milk J Edgar and Lincoln and the book pays special attention to the crucial generic plot along which biopics traverse and showcase American lives even as they modify the various notions of the national character A provocative critically astute study this collection examines the biopic as a reflexive refractive modernist film genre Admirably researched essays provide close compelling readings of chosen films while exploring the multilayered matrices of historical fact biographical and autobiographical literature popular media representations and cultural histories shaping not only the lives and narratives of the performers artists and political historical figures represented but also the practices of the filmmakers as they worked within or on the margins of the Hollywood industry Cynthia Lucia Rider University The volume s greatest strengths include its range its variety of ideas on the significance of the biopic and its research definitive in several cases into the relation between historical figures and their cinematic counterparts James Morrison author of Passport to Hollywood Hollywood Films European Directors Scansion in Psychoanalysis and Art Vanessa Sinclair, 2020-11-16 Scansion in Psychoanalysis and Art examines a strain of artists spanning more than a century beginning at the dawn of photography and culminating in the discussion of contemporary artists to illustrate various psychoanalytic concepts by examining artists working in a multitude of media Drawing on the theories of Sigmund Freud who applied psychoanalytic methods to art and literature to decipher the meaning and intention of the creator as well as Jacques Lacan s dissemination of scansion as a powerful disruption of narrative the book explores examples of the long and rich relationship between psychoanalysis and the fine arts Whilst guiding readers through the different artists and their artforms from painting and music to poetry collage photography film performance art technology and body modification Sinclair interrogates scansion as a generative process often inherent of the act of creation itself This is an intriguing book for psychoanalysts psychologists and creative arts therapists who wish to explore the generative potential of scansion and the relationship between psychoanalysis and the arts as well as for artists and art historians interested in a psychoanalytic view of these processes

Hot Equations Jesse S. Cohn, 2024-04-23 Inspired by the new diversity of science fiction fantasy and horror in the twenty first century Hot Equations Science Fantasy and the Radical Imagination on a Troubled Planet confronts the kinds of literary and political realism that continue to suppress the radical imagination Alluding both to the ongoing climate catastrophe and to Tom Godwin s The Cold Equations that famous touchstone of hard science fiction Hot Equations reads the crises of our post normal moment via works that increasingly subvert genre containment and spill out into the public sphere Drawing on archives and contemporary theory author Jesse S Cohn argues that these imaginative works of science fiction fantasy and horror strike at the very foundations of modernity calling its basic assumptions into question They threaten the modern order with a simultaneously terrible and promising anarchy pointing to ways beyond the present medical ecological and political crises of pandemic climate change and rising global fascism Examining books ranging from well known titles like The Hunger Games and The Caves of Steel to newer works such as Under the Pendulum Sun and The Stone Sky Cohn investigates the ways in which science fiction fantasy and horror address contemporary politics social issues and more The cold equations that established normal life in the modern world may be in shambles Cohn suggests but a New Black Fantastic makes it possible for the radical imagination to glimpse viable possibilities on the other side of crisis

Prejudice in the Press? George Yancey, Alicia L. Brunson, 2018-11-14 Charges of fake news tend to be politically motivated whether made by Republicans or Democrats Yet the potential for media bias is real and deserves an honest assessment Using an audit technique providing journalists with similar scenarios but altering key details the authors evaluate whether reporters and editors write different narratives depending on the characteristics of the principle issues in the story The results indicate that race gender sexuality and religion have little effect on whether a story will be covered but do color the story that is written Data suggest that news personnel may be operating in ways that promote progressive political leanings The results of this study are important for journalists seeking to move closer to objective standards of reporting

Modern American Counter Writing A. Robert Lee, 2010-01-21 The dissident voice in US culture might almost be said to have been born with the territory Its span runs from Roger Williams to Thoreau Anne Bradstreet to Gertrude Stein Ambrose Bierce to the New Journalism The Beats to the recent Bad Subjects cyber crowd This new study analyses three recent literary tranches in the tradition a re envisioning of the whole Beat web or circuit a consortium of postwar outrider voices Hunter Thompson to Frank Chin Joan Didion to Kathy Acker and a latest purview of what all too casually has been designated ethnic writing The aim is to set up and explore these different counter seams of modern American writing those which sit outside or at least awkwardly within agreed literary canons
