Sex, Love, Race Martha Hodes, 1999 Since the colonial era North America has been defined and continually redefined by the intersections of sex violence and love across racial boundaries Motivated by conquest economics desire and romance such crossings have profoundly affected American society by disturbing dominant ideas about race and sexuality Sex Love Race provides a historical foundation for contemporary discussions of sex across racial lines which despite the numbers of interracial marriages and multi racial children remains a controversial issue today The first historical anthology to focus solely and widely on the subject Sex Love Race gathers new essays by both younger and well known scholars which probe why and how sex across racial boundaries has so threatened Americans of all colors and classes Traversing the whole of American history from liaisons among Indians Europeans and Africans to twentieth century social scientists fascination with sex between Asian Americans and whites the essays cover a range of regions and of racial ethnic and sexual identities in North America Back cover

Literary visions of multicultural Ireland Pilar Villar-Argaiz, 2016-05-16 Now available in paperback this pioneering collection of essays deals with the topic of how Irish literature responds to the presence of non Irish immigrants in Celtic Tiger and post Celtic Tiger Ireland The book assembles an international group of 18 leading and prestigious academics in the field of Irish studies from both sides of the Atlantic including Declan Kiberd Anne Fogarty and Maureen T Reddy amongst others Key areas of discussion are what does it mean to be multicultural and what are the implications of this condition for contemporary Irish writers How has literature in Ireland responded to inward migration Have Irish writers reflected in their work either explicitly or implicitly the existence of migrant communities in Ireland If so are elements of Irish traditional culture and community maintained or transformed What is the social and political efficacy of these intercultural artistic visions

Illicit Love Ann McGrath, 2015-12 Illicit Love is a history of love sex and marriage between Indigenous peoples and settler citizens at the heart of two settler colonial nations the United States and Australia Award winning historian Ann McGrath illuminates interracial relationships from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century through stories of romance courtship and marriage between Indigenous peoples and colonizers in times of nation formation The romantic relationships of well known and ordinary interracial couples provide the backdrop against which McGrath discloses the marital middle ground that emerged as a primary threat to European colonial and racial supremacy in the Atlantic and Pacific Worlds from the Age of Revolution to the Progressive Era These relationships include the controversial courtship between white Connecticut born Harriett Gold and southern Cherokee Elias Boudinot the Australian missionary Ernest Gribble and his efforts to socially segregate the settler and aboriginal population only to be overcome by his romantic impulses for an aboriginal woman Jeannie the irony of Cherokee leader John Ross's marriage to a white woman Mary Brian Stapler despite his opposition to interracial marriages in the Cherokee Nation and the efforts among ordinary people in the imperial borderlands of both the United States and Australia to circumvent laws barring interracial love sex and marriage Illicit Love reveals how marriage itself was used by disparate parties for both empowerment and disempowerment and came to embody the contradictions of imperialism A tour de force of settler colonial history McGrath s study demonstrates vividly how interracial relationships between Indigenous and colonizing peoples were more frequent and threatening to nation states in the Atlantic and Pacific worlds than historians have previously acknowledged Love and Empire Felicity Amaya Schaeffer,2012-12-03 The spread of the Internet is remaking marriage markets altering the process of courtship and the geographic trajectory of intimacy in the 21st century For some Latin American women and U S men the advent of the cybermarriage industry offers new opportunities for re making themselves and their futures overthrowing the common narrative of trafficking and exploitation In this engaging stimulating virtual ethnography Felicity Amaya Schaeffer follows couples romantic interludes at Vacation Romance Tours in chat rooms and interviews married couples in the United States in order to understand the commercialization of intimacy While attending to the interplay between the everyday and the virtual Love and Empire contextualizes personal desires within the changing global economic and political shifts across the Americas By examining current immigration policies and the use of Mexican and Colombian women as erotic icons of the nation in the global marketplace she forges new relations between intimate imaginaries and state policy in the making of new markets finding that women s erotic self fashioning is the form through which women become ideal citizens of both their home countries and in the United States Through these little explored highly mediated romantic exchanges Love and Empire unveils a fresh perspective on the continually evolving relationship between the U S and Latin America Love on Trial: An American Scandal in Black and White Heidi Ardizzone,Earl Lewis,2002-05-17 Too important to be ignored A fascinating look at America s obsession with race pride and privilege Essence A modern Cinderella must defend her fairy tale marriage in a scandal that rocked jazz age America When Alice Jones a former domestic married Leonard Rhinelander in 1924 she became the first black woman to be listed in the Social Register as a member of one of New York s wealthiest families Once news of the marriage became public a scandal of race class and sex gripped the nation and forced the couple into an annulment trial
