The Complete Works of Charles Spurgeon, Volume 38 Charles Spurgeon, 2015-06-01

Volume 38 Sermons 2237 2288

Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church s most famous preachers and Christianity s foremost prolific writers

Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England s most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today

His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades

In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week

He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years

He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more

Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound

Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon s messages to be among the best in Christian literature

Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon s meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all

After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance

Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours

It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse

It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to

As I See It Jane Willis, 2010-08-20 I write for pleasure and when I feel strongly about something I find it much easier to be articulate writing my feelings down than trying to explain myself vocally Some of the poems I wrote when my marriage broke down after twenty years are quite dark and depressing but there is always the golden thread of hope running through which lifts the spirit at the end It would be nice to think that readers of my work could relate to some of my sentiments especially the humour in poems like The Ironing Pile and The Driving Test Those of you who are grandparents could well feel the same as I did when my grandson was born in 1996 he was the inspiration for For Leo And for all those of you with military connections please look for Falkland Malvinas To Keep The Peace For You Me and Thanks To Wootton Bassett Actually having my poetry published at last is a lifetime dream come true for me and it will make me very happy indeed to have a few readers and for my poems to make them laugh cry and think

Wind Carl L. Kell, 2009 The struggle for control of the Southern Baptist Convention which was publicly launched in 1979 and concluded in the 1990s marked an unprecedented turning point in the history of the denomination Just as a new millennium was dawning everything in the denomination was different its priorities its policies and its personalities The conservatives had come decisively to the fore and those Baptists labeled as moderates found themselves largely exiled from the religious communities that had formed them and to which they had given their lives Using rhetorical and historical analysis to illuminate the role of the Baptist moderates and the schisms that led to their banishment Carl Kell argues that the twenty first century Baptist diaspora originated in an unintended fashion after World War II Birthed in a postwar revival movement at Baylor University in Waco Texas young men and women with little or no training in preaching and religious organization became the progenitors of a distinctive community of moderate believers Armed with a spirit of evangelism and missions fueled by a rhetoric of freedom these men and women would be among the first exiles and martyrs of the fundamentalist takeover that occurred years later As he probes the rhetoric that defined the moderate voice in Southern Baptist life Kell also shows how the rise of a conservative counter rhetoric associated with biblical inerrancy and related doctrines came into play to exclude and divide members of the convention Complementing Kell's text are contributions by several other prominent observers of the Southern Baptist holy wars among them William Hull Bill Leonard and Duke McCall The end result is a unique and penetrating examination of not only where the Baptist moderates came from but where they are headed and how they will get there Carl Kell is professor of communication at Western Kentucky University He is the editor of Exiled Voices of the Southern Baptist Convention Holy War and coauthor with Raymond Camp of In the Name of the Father The Rhetoric of the New Southern Baptist Convention Why be a Christian? Howard P. Giddens, 2007 His active service spanned the last six decades of the twentieth century but even in retirement his influence continues unabated A graduate of Mercer University and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary he served as pastor of three Georgia Baptist churches and then as professor of Christianity at Mercer He is the epitome of the scholar pastor These sermons which cover such subjects as Jesus Christ the Christian life holy days the family evangelism and missions reverberate with a deep love for the Lord for the church for the Bible and for people The book will be a treasure to those who had the privilege of being parishioners or students of Dr Giddens It will also serve as a valuable resource to students and practitioners of preaching First it offers one of the finest examples available of a classical preaching style that was practiced in the mid twentieth century Second it shows how careful scholarship deep piety warm hearted compassion and prophetic challenge can be combined in a sermon Third it contains material that will offer stimulus and inspiration for the crafting of sermons today These sermons inspire teach and convict These are the words of a man who has made a difference in thousands of lives A Life Shared Margaret Cornell, 2013-12-05 Set in a small village in Cambridgeshire Margaret recounts her dramatic conversion in 1970 which led to her heart and her home being open to sixty five people in forty five years Led by God Margaret and her husband Tony moved from three to six and then ten bedrooms to accommodate their growing family Their Liqueurice Allsort residents added great richness to their lives During their early Christian life their son was killed in a road accident which far from crushing their faith made them stronger than ever and their witness resulted in a small revival in their Anglican church Eventually in 1982 they made room in their hearts for many more people when controversially side by side they pioneered and pastored a lively and successful Charismatic church for twenty five years It was prophesied that they would be like two Shire horses pulling a plough Margaret clearly heard God speak and direct her to minister to others and to trust God for everything from her own clothing to buying houses As a result she is very keen to teach others how to hear God for themselves It has always been Margarets aim to love God and love people whatever the cost
