Balizet, Natalie K. Eschenbaum, Marcela Kostihová, 2025-05-30 Strategic Shakespeare demonstrates the value of humanities trained scholars as leaders in higher education It features contributions from Renaissance and Shakespearean scholars in leadership roles in North American higher education who collectively aim to leverage traditional assumptions about Shakespeare in the service of a more inclusive and sustainable academy Making a powerful case for the liberal arts the contributors demonstrate ways in which training in the humanities creates a baseline of skills in collaboration deep listening tolerance for ambiguity and a range of positionalities They also illustrate an astute understanding of disparate data sets persuasive storytelling and a commitment to liberal arts education As this innovative collection showcases these skills are crucial in the current climate as higher education struggles with declining enrolments decreasing budgets growing public distrust and often hostile legislative oversight Additionally the skills help us navigate a rapidly shifting landscape of learning in the aftermath of the COVID 19 pandemic and entry of generative artificial intelligence AI to the public sphere The collection presents theoretical arguments case studies personal narratives and practical advice related to how humanities trained scholars have led and must continue to lead the academy through transformative change Strategic Shakespeare is an essential tool for anyone interested in learning from university leaders who have made good things happen on their campuses in their communities and in the profession It celebrates and foregrounds the core adaptive skills that humanities scholars bring to the table showcasing their unique predisposition for successful academic leadership during a time of unprecedented change
