Gay Fiction Speaks Conversations With Gay Novelists:

Gay Fiction Speaks Richard Canning, 2001-01-18 Today's most celebrated prominent and promising authors of gay fiction in English explore the literary influences and themes of their work in these revealing interviews with Richard Canning. Though the interviews touch upon a wide range of issues including gay culture AIDS politics art and activism what truly distinguishes them is the extent to which Canning encourages the authors to reflect on their writing practices published work literary forebears and their writing peers gay and straight Edmund White talks about narrative style and the story behind the cover of A Boy's Own Story Armistead Maupin discusses his method of writing and how his work has adapted to television Dennis Cooper thinks about L.A. AIDS Try and pop music Alan Hollinghurst considers structure and point of view in The Folding Star and why The Swimming Pool Library is exactly 366 pages long David Leavitt muses on the identity of the gay reader and the extent to which that readership defined a tradition Andrew Holleran wonders how he might have made The Beauty of Men more forlorn romantic lost by writing in the first person

The Cambridge Companion to Gay and Lesbian Writing Hugh Stevens, 2011 In the last two decades lesbian and gay studies have transformed literary studies. The Cambridge Companion to Gay and Lesbian Writing introduces readers to important concepts methods and cultural and historical debates relevant to the study of sexuality and literature

On Sexuality and Power Alan Sinfield, 2004 This book argues that hierarchies in interpersonal relations are inextricably linked to the main power differentials of our social and political life gender class age and race therefore it is not surprising that they govern our psychic lives. Recent writing enables an exploration of their positive potential especially in fantasy as well as their danger. The book focuses on the writing of the last thirty years revisiting also Whitman Wilde Mann Forster and Genet and reassessing the very idea of a gay canon

The Postmodern Short Story Farhat Iftekharrudin, Joseph Boyden, Mary Rohrberger, Jaie Claudet, 2003-12-30 Short stories are usually defined in terms of characteristics of modernism in which the story begins in the middle develops according to a truncated plot and ends with an epiphany. This approach tends to ignore postmodernism a movement often characterized by a negation of objective reality where plots are seemingly abandoned surfaces are extraordinary and symbols turn inward on themselves. This book examines postmodern forms and characteristic themes by analyzing a group of short stories that make use of postmodern narrative strategies including nonfictional fiction gender profiling and death as an image. The volume begins with a discussion of the blurred lines between fiction and nonfiction in the short story and imaginative personal essay. It then looks at the role of women in works by such authors as Sandra Cisneros Leslie Marmon Silko Joyce Carol Oates and Lorrie Moore. This is followed by a section of chapters on postmodern masculinity and short fiction. The next section focuses on death as an image and theme in works by Richard Ford Richard Brautigan and James Joyce. The final set of chapters considers postmodern short fiction from South Africa and Canada

James Purdy Michael Snyder, 2022 This is the first biography of a gay American novelist story writer and playwright who in the early 1960s was considered a major talent and whose work was praised by Jonathan Franzen Susan Sontag Langston Hughes and Tennessee Williams

Queer Domesticities M. Cook, 2014-04-29 Sissy home boys or domestic outlaws Through a series of vivid case studies taken from across the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Matt Cook explores the emergence of these trenchant stereotypes and looks at how they play out in the home and family lives of queer men Auden's Games of Knowledge Richard R. Bozorth, 2001 The first full length consideration of Auden as a homosexual poet this volume shows that Auden's career was tied to a process of gay self interrogation unparalleled in modern poetry and argues that he was driven by a powerful yearning to comprehend the psychological political and ethical implications of same sex desire Auden's theories about poetry in the 1930s and after reflected an intense concern with how to write publicly as a homosexual poet That struggle was made manifest in his love poetry which Bozorth argues constitutes a kind of erotic autobiography exploring the distinct challenges of homosexual love Bozorth's approach is manifold examining the poet's engagements with avant garde poetics gay subculture psychoanalysis leftist politics and theology This book proposes that from his early fascination with secret agent and trickster figures to his later theories of poetry as an I Thou relation Auden viewed poetry as a fictional but primal erotic encounter with the reader Families We Choose Kath Weston, 1997 This study brings together two areas of investigation relationships of gay and lesbian individuals with their biological families and lesbian and gay relationships in the context of research on alternative forms of family Fashioning Sapphism Laura Doan, 2001-01-03 The highly publicized obscenity trial of Radclyffe Hall's The Well of Loneliness 1928 is generally recognized as the crystallizing moment in the construction of a visible modern English lesbian culture marking a great divide between innocence and deviance private and public New Woman and Modern Lesbian Yet despite unreserved agreement on the importance of this cultural moment previous studies often reductively distort our reading of the formation of early twentieth century lesbian identity either by neglecting to examine in detail the developments leading up to the ban or by framing events in too broad a context against other cultural phenomena Fashioning Sapphism locates the novelist Radclyffe Hall and other prominent lesbians including the pioneer in women's policing Mary Allen the artist Gluck and the writer Bryher within English modernity through the multiple sites of law sexology fashion and literary and visual representation thus tracing the emergence of a modern English lesbian subculture in the first two decades of the twentieth century Drawing on extensive new archival research the book interrogates anew a range of myths long accepted without question and still in circulation concerning to cite only a few the extent of homophobia in the 1920s the strategic deployment of sexology against sexual minorities and the rigidity of certain cultural codes to denote lesbianism in public culture Psychological Perspectives on Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Experiences Linda Garnets, 2003 This book provides an overview of current thought about the psychological issues affecting lesbians bisexuals and gay men OK2BG Jack Dunsmoor, 2015 OK2BG is narrative nonfiction a Memoir about a guy who wants to be a Mentor preferably to a teenager so they can have a decent meaningful conversation about stuff preferably with a kid at risk or just otherwise lost in order to help both the teenager as well as the determined subject of this story realize their unique potential find or reinforce their place in the world Overall a chronicle about the author's attempt over several years to understand the question of why do I want to be a Mentor which eventually helps him become a more insightful person Subsequently in September 2010 after a plague of teen suicides Jack turns his attention to researching gay biographies into optimistically appropriate groups of books for gay kids at risk from bullying After 5 years Jack has categorized 2 000 books in the form of Memoirs Biographies Autobiographies written by or about 1 000 allegedly gay men The primary message in OK2BG is to read reassess before you run asunder Queer Commodities G. Davidson,2012-02-27 Queer Commodities is the first book length analysis of same sexuality and consumer capitalism in contemporary US fiction Moving beyond the critical tendencies to identify gay and lesbian subcultures as either hopelessly immersed in consumer capitalism or heroically resistant to it Guy Davidson argues that while these subcultures are necessarily commodified they also provide means of subversively negotiating aspects of life under capitalism Dennis Cooper Paul Hegarty,Danny Kennedy,2012 Dennis Cooper s writing has acquired a ferocious reputation for its bold experimentation its transgressive content and its emotional content which is both Romantic and touching whilst cold and hard edged For over twenty years Cooper has explored the boundaries of human living and sexuality s centrality to that living The extreme situations he develops in his writing bring out parts of gay experience that a consensual community often shies away from likewise the heterosexual mainstream His most important genre is undoubtedly fiction but Cooper has also written poetry large quantities of journalistic works notably for Artforum and Spin and recently has had great success and recognition with theatrical works The book enters deep into the worlds Cooper fabricates and into the coolness of his expression This challenging work is addressed by a group of mostly young and new critical writers and academics who provide creative responses to Cooper s artistry The contributions which cover the breadth of Cooper s work develop themes and devices that advance his profound and disturbing world view In addition to the artistic responses the topics in the critical pieces range from sexuality in the suburbs to neurological responses to the work via the limits and possibilities of bodies Others look at the implications of contemporary electronic communication as outlined in Cooper s recent work or the use of space Cooper s writing receives a multi faceted contextualisation and his literary ideas are made accessible to any reader interested in learning why Cooper is today regarded as one of the foremost writers in expressing the psychological point behind the centrality of sexual expression

Alternative Paradigms of Literary Realism D. Adams,2009-12-21 Using the traditional genres of allegory pastoral and parable this book develops alternative paradigms of literary realism with which to reexamine a group of crucial but marginalized 20th century writers who have been misread as conventional mimetic realists Between Men Richard Canning,2007-05-17 Lambda Literary Award winning editor Richard Canning brings together all new work by Edmund White Dale Peck James McCourt Andrew Holleran and others Hear Us Out Richard Canning,2003 Mikhail Gorbachev and Zdenek Mlynar were friends for half a century since they first crossed paths as students in 1950 Although one was a Russian and the other a Czech they were both ardent supporters of communism and socialism One took part in laying the groundwork for and carrying out the Prague spring the other opened a new political era in Soviet world politics In 1993 they decided that their conversations might be of interest to others and so they began to tape record them This book is the product of that thinking out loud process It is an absorbing record of two friends trying to explain to one another their views on the problems and events that determined their destinies From reminiscences of their starry eyed university days to reflections on the use of force to save socialism to contemplation of the end of the cold war here is a far more candid picture of Gorbachev than we have ever seen before
