The Incorrigible Optimists Club Jean-Michel Guenassia, 2014 Paris 1959 As dusk settles over the immigrant quarter 12 year old Michel Marin is drawn to the local bistro From his usual position at the football table he has a vantage point on a grown up world But as the sun sinks and the plastic players spin Michel's concentration is not on the game but on the huddle of men gathered in the shadows of a back room Past the bar behind a partly drawn curtain the Incorrigible Optimists Club introduces Michel to a world beyond the boundaries of his childhood experience a world of history ideas and politics shaped by their own personal experiences

The Migrant Canon in Twenty-First-Century France Oana Sabo, 2018-04 The Migrant Canon in Twenty First Century France explains the causes of twenty first century global migrations and their impact on French literature and the French literary establishment A marginal genre in 1980s France since the turn of the century migrant literature has become central to criticism and publishing Oana Sabo addresses previously unanswered questions about the proliferation of contemporary migrant texts and their shifting themes and forms mechanisms of literary legitimation and notions of critical and commercial achievement Through close readings of novels by Mathias Nard Milan Kundera Dany Laferrière Henri Lopès André Makine Ric Emmanuël Schmitt Alice Zeniter and others and sociological analyses of their consecrating authorities including the Prix littéraire de la Porte Dorée the Académie française publishing houses and online reviewers Sabo argues that these texts are best understood as cultural commodities that mediate between literary and economic forms of value academic and mass readerships and national and global literary markets By examining the latest literary texts and cultural agents not yet subjected to sufficient critical study Sabo contributes to contemporary literature cultural history migration studies and literary sociology
