Forum, 1999-04 Attitudinal Evaluation in Chinese University Students' English Writing Xinghua Liu, Anne

McCabe, 2017-09-15 This book offers up-to-date insights into the long-standing controversy of whether or not Chinese learners of English adequately express their attitudes in written English. It compares four writing datasets from three groups of student writers: e.g., English speaking students' English texts, Chinese speaking students' Chinese texts, and both English and Chinese texts produced by the same group of Chinese speaking students majoring in English, and applies the appraisal framework, an analytical tool developed in the field of Systemic Functional Linguistics. The book provides a nuanced view of the deployment of attitudinal patterns and the linguistic resources used for attitudinal evaluation in Chinese students' English writing. Accordingly, it offers a valuable resource for all those interested in second language writing, contrastive rhetoric, second language acquisition, and systemic functional linguistics. Rediscovering Interlanguage Larry Selinker, William E.

Rutherford, 2013-12-02 An account of the development of research and thinking in the field of learner language. Draws on wide-ranging research into contrastive analysis, bilingualism, theoretical linguistics, and experimental psychology.

Research on Composition Peter Smagorinsky, 2006 Covering the period between 1984 and 2003, this authoritative sequel picks up where the earlier volumes Braddock et al. 1963 and Hillocks 1986, now classics in the field, left off. It features a broader focus that goes beyond the classroom teaching of writing to include teacher research, second language writing, rhetoric, home and community literacy, workplace literacy, and histories of writing. Each chapter is written by an expert in the area reviewed and covers both conventional written composition and multimodal forms of composition, including drawing, digital forms, and other relevant media. Research on Composition is an invaluable road map of composition research for the next decade and required reading for anyone teaching or writing about composition today.
