This holiday was first officially celebrated on 30th May 1869 as Decoration Day. General Logan declared this holiday as a day to honour the service of the Civil War veterans. General James Garfield made a speech on the very first Decoration Day at Washington Memorial Cemetery. As General Logan was the Chief of the Northern states during the Civil War, these states accepted Decoration Day as an official holiday, but the Southern states refused to do it.

Only after World War I the holiday began honouring all Americans who died fighting in all wars.

Now this holiday is celebrated on the last Tuesday in May. This day is connected with several traditions and events. This includes a moment of Remembrance. At 2 p.m. Every American is requested to take a one-minute pause. Many people go to cemeteries. Military parades are hold in several cities. In Washington, D.C. the national Memorial Day concert takes place.
