Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 2014 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 2014 "e;Original Sin"e;? Kumar Ramakrishna, 2016-05-13 e Revisioniste or e alternativee historians have increasingly questioned elements of the Singapore Story the master narrative of the nation s political and socioeconomic development since its founding by the British in 1819 Much criticism focuses especially on one defining episode of the Story the internal security dragnet mounted on 2 February 1963 against Communist United Front elements on the island known to posterity as Operation Coldstore The revisionists claim that Coldstore was mounted for political rather than security reasons and actually destroyed a legitimate Progressive Left opposition personalized by the charismatic figure of Lim Chin Siong rather than a dangerous Communist network as the conventional wisdom holds Relying on both declassified and some previously unseen classified sources this book challenges revisionist claims reiterating the historic importance of Coldstore in helping pave the way for Singapore s remarkable journey from Third World status to First in a single generation

Information Rights Philip Coppel KC, 2020-06-11 Retaining the position it has held since first publication the fifth edition of this leading practitioner text on information law has been thoroughly re worked to provide comprehensive coverage of the Data Protection Act 2018 and the GDPR Information Rights has been cited by the Supreme Court Court of Appeal and others and is used by practitioners judges and all those who practise in the field The new edition maintains its style of succinct statements of principle supported by case law legislative provisions and statutory guidance Reflecting its enlarged scope and to maintain easy referencing the work has been arranged into two volumes The first volume is a 1 250 page commentary divided into six parts The first part is an overview and introduction to overarching principles The second part provides an authoritative treatment of the data protection regime This covers all four forms of processing general applied law enforcement and security services under the GDPR and DPA 2018 Each obligation and each right is comprehensively treated with reference to all known case law both domestic and EU including those dealing with analogous provisions in the previous data protection regime The third part provides a detailed treatment of the environmental information regime This recognises the treaty provenance of the regime and its distinct requirements The fourth part continues to provide the most thorough analysis available of the Freedom of Information Act and its Scottish counterpart As with earlier editions every tribunal and court decision has been reviewed and where required referenced The fifth part considers other sources of information rights including common law rights local government rights and subject specific statutory information access regimes eg health records court records audit information etc The final part deals with practice and procedure examining appeal and regulatory processes criminal sanctions and so forth The second volume comprises extensive annotated statutory material including the DPA 2018 the GDPR FOIA subordinate legislation international conventions and statutory guidance The law is stated as at 1st February 2020

Children and Forced Migration Marisa O. Ensor, Elżbieta M. Goździak, 2017-02-23 This book responds to the reality that children and youth constitute a disproportionately large percentage of displaced populations worldwide It demonstrates how their hopes and aspirations reflect the transient nature of their age group and often differ from those of their elders It also examines how they face additional difficulties due to the inconsistent definition and uneven implementation of the traditional durable solutions to forced migration implemented by national governments and international assistance agencies The authors use empirical research findings and robust policy analyses of cases of child displacement across the globe to make their central argument that the particular challenges and opportunities that displaced children and youth face must be investigated and factored into relevant policy and practice promoting more sustainable and durable solutions in the process This interdisciplinary edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of forced migration studies development conflict and peace building and youth studies along with policy makers children's rights organizations and NGOs

Tackling Corruption in Commonwealth Africa Dr Roger Koranteng, 2018-11-26 Tackling Corruption in Commonwealth Africa identifies the institutions in five countries that have taken the lead in reducing the impact of corruption and accounts for the factors both technical and political that have enabled these institutions to implement successful anti corruption strategies

Tourism, Conflict and Contested Heritage in Former Yugoslavia Josef Ploner, Patrick Naef, 2018-12-07 Described as cultural crossroads or mosaic powder keg border bridge or Europe's Other the region comprising former Yugoslavia has over time conjured up ambiguous imaginaries associated with political unrest national contest and ethnic divide Since the disintegration of Yugoslavia and the succeeding Yugoslav Wars of the 1990s both the geography and historiography of the region have been thoroughly reconfigured which has impacted the ways in which heritage is interpreted and used at local regional and national levels In this ongoing process of heritage re interpretation tourism is more than just a dark spectacle While it can be seen as a catalyst through which to filter or normalise dissonant memories it can also be utilised as a powerful ideological tool which enables the narrative reinvention of contested traditions and divisive myths Drawing on case studies from Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Kosovo this volume generates new and fascinating insights into the contested terrain of heritage tourism in former Yugoslavia It explores the manifold ways in which tourism stakeholders engage with capitalise on and make sense of sites and events marked by conflict and trauma Unlike many previous studies this book features contributions by emerging early career scholars emanating from within the region and working across disciplines such as anthropology art history geography and political studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Tourism and Cultural Change

Southeast Asian Affairs 2015 Daljit Singh,2015-05-19 Southeast Asian Affairs is the only one of its kind a comprehensive annual review devoted to the international relations politics and economies of the region and its nation states The collected volumes of Southeast Asian Affairs have become a compendium documenting the dynamic evolution of regional and national developments in Southeast Asia from the end of the second Vietnam War to the alarms and struggles of today Over the years the editors have drawn on the talents and expertise not only of ISEAS own professional research staff and visiting fellows but have also reached out to tap leading scholars and analysts elsewhere in Southeast and East Asia Australia and New Zealand North America and Europe A full list of contributors over forty years reads like a kind of who's who in Southeast Asian Studies Regardless of specific events and outcomes in political economic and social developments in Southeast Asia's future we can expect future editions of Southeast Asian Affairs to continue to provide the expert analysis that has marked the publication since its founding It has become an important contributor to the knowledge base of contemporary Southeast Asia

Butts Heather Radke,2022-11-29 Winning cheeky and illuminating What appears initially as a folly with a look at this cover and title becomes thanks to Radke's intelligence and curiosity something much meatier entertaining and wise The Washington Post Lively and thorough Butts is the best kind of nonfiction Esquire Best Books of 2022 A carefully researched and reported work of cultural history The New York Times that explores how one body part has influenced the female and human experience for centuries and what that obsession reveals about our lives today Whether we love them or hate them think they're sexy think they're strange consider them too big too small or anywhere in between humans have a complicated relationship with butts It is a body part unique to humans critical to our evolution and survival and yet it has come to signify so much more sex desire comedy shame A woman's butt in particular is forever being assessed criticized and objectified from anxious self examinations trying on jeans in department store dressing rooms to enduring crass remarks while walking down a street or high school hallways But why In Butts A Backstory reporter essayist and RadioLab contributing editor Heather Radke is determined to find out Spanning nearly two centuries this whip smart Publishers Weekly starred review cultural history takes us from the performance halls of 19th century London to the aerobics studios of the 1980s the music video set of Sir Mix a Lot's Baby Got Back and the mountains of Arizona where every year humans and horses race in a feat of gluteal endurance

Along the way she meets evolutionary biologists who study how butts first developed models whose measurements have defined jean sizing for millions of women and the fitness gurus who created fads like Buns of Steel She also examines the central importance of race through figures like Sarah Bartmann once known as the Venus Hottentot Josephine Baker Jennifer Lopez and other women of color whose butts have been idolized envied and despised Part deep dive reportage part personal journey part cabinet of curiosities Butts is an entertaining illuminating and thoughtful examination of why certain silhouettes come in and out of fashion and how larger ideas about race control liberation and power affect our most private feelings about ourselves and others
