Up To? Ernst M. Conradie, Cynthia Moe-Lobeda, 2023-03-01 This second volume in the series on An Earthed Faith will address the following question Given what we know about the Anthropocene how does one even begin to answer the question What is this God up to and how ought humans respond This is a question of theological method including the sources and interlocutors of Christian theology its aims and starting points social theories shaping it and presuppositions grounding it Addressing this question is the classic task of doing contextual theology namely describing and analysing a particular context and considering how this context may best be addressed theologically and practically The question highlights the need for prophetic theology to discern the signs of the time to recognise a moment of truth Kairos and to discern counter movements of the Spirit The question of method opens the door to constructive critique of how theology has been done and should be done The Cultural Life of Catastrophes and Crises Carsten Meinert, Kristin Veel, 2012-10-30 Catastrophes and crises are exceptions They are disruptions of order In various ways and to different degrees they change and subvert what we regard as normal They may occur on a personal level in the form of traumatic or stressful situations on a social level in the form of unstable political financial or religious situations or on a global level in the form of environmental states of emergency The main assumption in this book is that in contrast to the directness of any given catastrophe and its obvious physical economical and psychological consequences our understanding of catastrophes and crises is shaped by our cultural imagination No matter in which eruptive and traumatizing form we encounter them our collective repertoire of symbolic forms historical sensibilities modes of representation and patterns of imagination determine how we identify analyze and deal with catastrophes and crises This book presents a series of articles investigating how we address and interpret catastrophes and crises in film literature art and theory ranging from Voltaire's eighteenth century Europe haunted by revolutions and earthquakes to the 1994 genocide in Rwanda to the bleak prophetic landscapes of Cormac McCarthy

The God Who Is with Us Benjamin H. Kim, 2022-10-21 Contemporary theologies of mission rely on the central concept of the missio Dei which states that mission properly belongs to the triune God over the church. However, present accounts fail to establish any corresponding link between God's trinitarian economy and ontology. In other words, the problem of the missio Dei is the problem of the break between the act and being of God. Benjamin H. Kim argues that a repair is needed for missio Dei theology and this repair is found in reexamining Barth's doctrine of revelation. In doing so, the locus of mission moves from God's trinitarian sending to his trinitarian revealing. The repair is further advanced by Dietrich Bonhoeffer through his concept of person which functions as the unity of act and being. This account returns mission to its original definition which was intended to describe the inner trinitarian being of God in relation to humanity. The concept of person recovers this meaning of mission by locating it first in the person of Christ and second in the collective person of the church existing as the Christ community. Thus, Bonhoeffer's description of revelation in terms of personhood provides an account that is more faithful to the missio Dei's core insights.

God is Not 'green' Adrian Michael Hough, 1997 A thought provoking account challenging the idea that Christianity has little to say in the ecological arena. Explores the ways in which traditional Christian teaching and practice provide an adequate response to the ecological issues now facing the planet. The author seeks to make sense of the causes and possible solutions to the current environmental crisis while pointing out important consequences for the Church, its ethics and liturgy.

Struggling with God Simon D. Podmore, 2013-10-31 Invoking the biblical motif of Jacob's struggle with the Face of God (Genesis 32), Simon D. Podmore undertakes a constructive theological account of spiritual trial (tentatio) known in German mystical and Lutheran tradition as Anfechtung in relation to enduring questions of the otherness and hiddenness of God and the self, the problem of suffering and evil, the freedom of Spirit and the anxious relationship between temptation and ordeal, fear and desire. This book traces a genealogy of spiritual trial from medieval German mystical theology through Lutheran and Pietistic thought (Tauler, Luther, Arndt, Boehme) and reconstructs Kierkegaard's innovative yet under-examined recovery of the category Anfægtelse (a Danish cognate for Anfechtung) within the modern context of the spiritless decline of Christendom. Developing the relationship between struggle (Anfechtung) and release (Gelassenheit), Podmore proposes a Kierkegaardian theology of spiritual trial which elaborates the kenosis of the self before God in terms of Spirit's restless longing to rest transparently in God. Offering an original rehabilitation of the temptation of spiritual trial, this book strives for a renewed theological hermeneutic which speaks to the enduring human struggle to realise the unchanging love of God in the face of spiritual darkness.

The Hand of God Michael Gauvreau, 2017-10-01 Set against a background of intense religious and cultural change and tensions over the meanings of nationalism and federalism in both Quebec and Canada, Michael Gauvreau's The Hand of God traces the emergence of Claude Ryan as a public intellectual. This is the first comprehensive biography of Ryan based on his personal papers and extensive writings as a social commentator editorialist and director of the newspaper Le Devoir. At a time of Catholic religious fervour and new currents of social analysis Ryan spoke for a postwar generation of young Quebecers assuring his surprising ascension as one of the most influential voices in Canadian liberalism and federalism in the 1960s. In rich detail Gauvreau describes Ryan's ideas on religion politics and society which assured his importance both as a major figure seeking the transformation of Roman Catholicism in the 1950s and 1960s and as an advocate of a type of liberalism that was often at odds with Pierre Elliott Trudeau's. He presents compelling new material on the breakdown of social and cultural consensus a detailed analysis of Ryan's personal and intellectual dealings with both Trudeau and René Lévesque and a strikingly new interpretation of the motives of the key players in the October Crisis of 1970. A significant rethinking of the relationship between liberalism nationalism and federalism in Quebec in the twentieth century The Hand of God uses biography as a lens to explore and shed new light on questions central to postwar Quebec and Canadian cultural political and intellectual history

America in God's World Kenneth L. Vaux, 2009-02-18 America in God's World argues that human injustice in social policy areas such as security economy and ecology can be traced to defective theology ethics abroad in the land. Renewing biblical theology and ethics and finding new ways to appropriate this wisdom into public policy can bring renewal to our national life and help heal and reconcile our troubled world

Offering contributions by leading international scholars this volume seeks to define literature as a core expressive form and an essential constitutive element of newly reformulated understandings of humanism. While the value of humanism has recently been dominated by anti humanist and post humanist perspectives which focused on the flaws and exclusions of previous definitions of humanism this volume examines the human problems dilemmas fears and aspirations expressed in literature as a fundamentally humanist art form and activity. Divided into three overarching categories this companion will explore the histories developments debates and contestations of humanism in literature and deliver fresh definitions of the new humanism for the humanities. This focus aims to transcend the boundaries of a world in which human life is all too often defined in terms of restrictions political economic theological intellectual and lived in terms of obedience conformity isolation and fear. The Routledge Companion to Humanism and Literature will provide invaluable support to humanities students and scholars alike seeking to navigate the relevance and resilience of humanism across world cultures and literatures

God and Nature in the Thought of Margaret Cavendish Brandie R. Siegfried, Lisa T. Sarasohn, 2016-04-22 Only recently have scholars begun to note Margaret Cavendish's references to God spirits and the rational soul and little has been published in this regard. This volume addresses that scarcity by taking up the theological threads woven into Cavendish's ideas about nature matter magic governance and social relations with special attention given to Cavendish's literary and philosophical works. Reflecting the lively state of Cavendish studies, God and Nature in the Thought of Margaret Cavendish allows for disagreements among the contributing authors whose readings of Cavendish sometimes vary in significant ways and it encourages further exploration of the theological elements evident in her literary and philosophical works. Despite the diversity of thought developed here, several significant points of convergence establish a foundation for future work on Cavendish's vision of nature, philosophy, and God. The chapters collected here enhance our understanding of the intriguing and sometimes brilliant contributions Cavendish made to debates about God's place in the scientific cosmos.

Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation Mark A. Lamport, 2017-08-31. The Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation is a comprehensive global study of the life and work of Martin Luther and the movements that followed him in history and through today. Organized by a stellar advisory board of Luther and Reformation scholars, the encyclopedia features nearly five hundred entries that examine Luther's life and impact worldwide. The two-volume set provides overviews of basics such as the 95 Theses as well as more complex topics such as reformational distinctions. Aspects of Cameroon Englishes Aloysius Ngefac, 2022-02-08. In spite of the fact that World Englishes theorizing projects a monolithic picture of English in Cameroon by focusing mostly on Cameroon Anglophone English, generally called Cameroon English, this book argues with empirical evidence that Cameroon harbours different world Englishes that display different realities and different describable aspects and trends, a complicated sociolinguistic scenario that challenges nation-based World Englishes paradigms. The book will be indispensable for different stakeholders including scholars of World Englishes, general linguists, sociolinguists, creolists, phonologists, syntacticians, pedagogues, and students. In addition to describing the sociolinguistic and typological hallmarks of the different world Englishes that hold sway in Cameroon and highlighting their variety-specific peculiarities, the book further evaluates the plausibility and applicability of nation-based World Englishes paradigms in Cameroon, a country whose complex sociolinguistic landscape is comparable only to that of South Africa.

Mayflower Lives Martyn Whittock, 2019-08-06. Leading into the 400th anniversary of the voyage of the Mayflower, Martyn Whittock examines the lives of the saints, members of the Separatist puritan congregations, and strangers, economic migrants on the original ship who collectively became known to history as the Pilgrims.
