

Worrying figures have revealed up to 150 lone workers are attacked every day. SNIPEF Technical & Skills Officer, Mel Shepherd, gives his advice on staying safe and cutting the risks

Going it alone

There have been numerous articles recently regarding lone working and the risks involved. Recent statistics from the British Crime Survey have indicated that as many as 150 lone workers are attacked every day.

These attacks are varied and are carried out over a variety of sectors, including

WHAT IS LONE WORKING?

The term lone working is defined by the HSE as 'those who work by themselves without close or direct supervision'. This could include people working away from their fixed base including construction, maintenance and utilities staff, one person working in a small workshop
