

Jesus Calls Us to Stewardship

When confronted by the reality of the devastation caused by the 2010 Haiti earthquake, the church community in the United States is called to stewardship.

The Challenge of Stewardship

The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it.

A Stewardship Challenge in Haiti

In Haiti, a Stewardship Challenge is being faced. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it.

The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it.

The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it.

The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it. The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it.

The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it.

The church is called to steward the resources that God has entrusted to it.

"When I saw the devastation in Haiti, I was struck by the need for stewardship. I was struck by the need for stewardship. I was struck by the need for stewardship."

Stewardship

Stewardship is the act of being responsible for the resources that God has entrusted to us. It is the act of being responsible for the resources that God has entrusted to us.
