A New Reading of the Animal Apocalypse of 1 Enoch Daniel Olson, 2013-03-15. A New Reading of the Animal Apocalypse of 1 Enoch is the most comprehensive theological commentary on this important second century BCE Jewish apocalypse to date, laying out the purpose and methodology of this Enochic allegory and using this as the basis for a new commentary on the whole text presented here in a fresh translation. Against other interpretations that focus on Israel and its institutions, Daniel Olson argues that the promise of universal blessing in the Abrahamic covenant is presented in the Animal Apocalypse as the governing dynamic in a sacred history that begins and ends with humanity in general. The authentic Jacob Israel will appear in the end times and be the catalyst of universal salvation.

Biology, the World of Life Robert A. Wallace, 1997.

American Evangelicals and Religious Diversity Kevin M. Taylor, 2006-05-01. American Evangelicals and Religious Diversity is a qualitative study of how religion and education intersect at one conservative Christian school. The school is Evangelical and American. The school's curriculum is bible-based and fulfills its state's educational requirements for high school graduation. While the school has an environment that is Evangelical, the students live in a religiously diverse world. This book documents how three students and their teacher struggle to understand a world that challenges their faith. The context for this understanding is how the teacher presents and the three students come to understand Catholicism, Islam, and the indigenous religions of the Americas. Americans continue to debate whether religious schools are too parochial and do not prepare students to live in a diverse society.
