Reynolds, 2016-03-30T00:00:00Z In 1946 Viola Desmond was wrongfully arrested for sitting in a whites only section of a movie theatre in New Glasgow Nova Scotia In 2010 the Nova Scotia Government recognized this gross miscarriage of justice and posthumously granted her a free pardon Most Canadians are aware of Rosa Parks who refused to give up her seat on a racially segregated bus in Alabama but Viola Desmond s act of resistance occurred nine years earlier However many Canadians are still unaware of Desmond s story or that racial segregation existed throughout many parts of Canada during most of the twentieth century On the subject of race Canadians seem to exhibit a form of collective amnesia Viola Desmond s Canada is a groundbreaking book that provides a concise overview of the narrative of the Black experience in Canada Reynolds traces this narrative from slavery under French and British rule in the eighteenth century to the practice of racial segregation and the fight for racial equality in the twentieth century Included are personal recollections by Wanda Robson Viola Desmond s youngest sister together with important but previously unpublished documents and other primary sources in the history of Blacks in Canada NEW Teaching Guide Available Here      Development of the Yangtze River Economic Belt in China Xueqing Jing,2021-04-28 This book focuses on the level of industrial synergy development of the Yangtze River Economic Belt in China The main contents include Linkage Development of the Manufacturing and Logistics Industries of the Yangtze River Economic Belt Cooperative Development of the Information Industry in the Yangtze River Economic Belt Coordination and Deepening of Agricultural Development in the Yangtze River Economic Belt Coordinated Development of the Ecological Environment in the Yangtze River Economic Belt Development of Regional Financial Integration in the Yangtze River Economic Belt Port Coordinated Development of the Yangtze River Economic Belt as well as Industrial Division of the Yangtze River Economic Belt      Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix,Prew, Martin,2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book s chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education s present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years      Minerals Yearbook ,2005 Reviews the mineral and material industries of the United States and foreign countries Contains statistical data on materials and minerals and includes information on economic and technical trends and development Includes chapters on approximately 90 commodities and over 175 countries      The Practice of International Development Jerrold Keilson,Michael Gubser,2017-09-22 Development analysts tend to give short shrift to the seemingly minor bureaucratic hitches faced by practitioners those who design manage implement and evaluate aid projects Often critical of foreign aid either for its apparent ineffectiveness at alleviating poverty or its purported neocolonial implications the academic literature rarely acknowledges the experiences and pressures faced by practitioners themselves as they implement aid funded development projects the meetings paperwork negotiations site visits financial transactions logistical arrangements interviews program activities and beneficiary interactions that keep projects running And yet the impact of aid projects and indeed the impact of development itself often grows out of the daily activities and personal interactions of development practitioners This unique book considers challenges from the perspective of development practitioners who confront technical managerial political theoretical and moral quandaries on a daily basis With chapters written by expert practitioners on different aspects of design and management of international development activities this book examines real issues and navigates the often contradictory demands of local development needs including international donor imperatives limited financial resources time information and assurance of results the competing pulls of administrative efficiency and the desire to alleviate suffering It also gives readers access to the crucial but little heard voices of those who spend their professional lives designing and managing foreign aid projects offering insight into what did or did not work on projects they have managed implemented or evaluated These insights do not seek to identify universally right or wrong ways of doing development instead they highlight pros and cons associated with various approaches and decisions This book provides valuable insights for students and others interested in a development career encourages practitioners to engage in reflection and persuades researchers to further consider the influence of practice on project success or failure

Perspectives of Black Histories in Schools LaGarrett J. King, 2019-11-01 Concerned scholars and educators since the early 20th century have asked questions regarding the viability of Black history in K-12 schools Over the years we have seen K-12 Black history expand as an academic subject which has altered research questions that deviate from whether Black history is important to know to what type of Black history knowledge and pedagogies should be cultivated in classrooms in order to present a more holistic understanding of the group's historical significance Research around this subject has been stagnated typically focusing on the subject's tokenism and problematic status within education We know little of the state of K-12 Black history education and the different perspectives that Black history encompasses The book Perspectives on Black Histories in Schools brings together a diverse group of scholars who discuss how K-12 Black history is understood in education The book's chapters focus on the question what is Black history and explores that inquiry through various mediums including its foundation curriculum pedagogy policy and psychology The book provides researchers teacher educators and historians an examination into how much K-12 Black history has come and yet how long it still needed to go

Burnt by Democracy Jacqueline Kennelly, 2023-11-30 Burnt by Democracy traces the political ascendance of neoliberalism and its effects on youth The book explores democracy and citizenship as described in interviews with over forty young people ages 16 to 30 who have either experienced homelessness or identify as an activist living in five liberal democracies Canada Australia New Zealand the United States and the United Kingdom Highlighting significant cuts to social and affordable housing astronomical increases in the costs of higher education and the transformation and erosion of state benefits systems Jacqueline Kennelly argues that democracy's decline is not occurring because young people are apathetic or focused on informal politics or unaware of their civic duties Rather it is because of collective misunderstanding about how democracy is actually structured how individuals learn to participate and how growing wealth inequality has undermined the capacity of those at the bottom to meaningfully advocate for changes that might improve their conditions Against a vivid and often heart breaking backdrop of stories from young people struggling to survive and thrive under conditions of ever expanding state retrenchment and inequality Burnt by Democracy makes a timely and impassioned plea for protecting and strengthening democracy by truly levelling the playing field for all
