Phelan, Jr., 2005-06-14 Devotional material has always been of immeasurable value to Gods people Spurgeons Morning and Evening has encouraged many a pilgrim as they prepared for their day and sought comfort on their pillow at night We do not aspire to this caliber of thought or experience yet we feel a burden for the same work One reason is because there is always a need for contemporary authors people who live and breathe in this present world who may be identified as a living brother and companion in tribulation Another reason has given equal force to vent our hearts in written form There was once a day when families gathered together to discuss religious topics It was by those discussions however brief and unstructured they may have been that children became aware of their parents faith and ultimately their God Today we live in a busy world With computers television VCR s CD s and a world of entertainment at our fingertips this opportunity of teaching has become all but extinct Gadgets noise and electronics stifle familial communication Granted children may know that their parents believe in God because they go to church yet the dynamics of personal interactions between parent and child is all but lost Thus we come to this final reason for this collection of articles To give the parent some short meditations to enjoy personally and ultimately share with their family and children Our homilies are for the most part a condensed version of messages delivered to our congregation Surely if they were given us by the Chief Shepherd for the feeding of the gathered flock they will be beneficial to other sheep which are not of our immediate fold For your benefit we have included some helpful hints for parents at the conclusion of each devotion
