Re-Inventing Islam Deanna Ferree Womack, 2025 From the end of the American Civil War to the start of World War II the Protestant missionary movement unintentionally tilled the soil in which American Islamophobia would eventually take root What ideas did missionaries in Islamic contexts pass on to later generations How were these ideas connected to centuries old Protestant discourses about Muslims and gender beginning in the Reformation And what bearing does this history have on the birth of Islamophobia and on Christian Muslim dialogue efforts in the US today In answering these questions Re inventing Islam traces the gender constructs that have informed historical Protestant perceptions of Islam especially in the far reaching textual visual and material influences of the American and British movement for missions to Muslims This book first considers Protestant discourse about Muslim women and men from the Reformation to the Enlightenment Then it turns to the colossal archive of literature images and cultural objects that missionaries and particularly missionary women collected from Islamic contexts and used to inform and motivate their constituents Anglo Protestants in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries perpetually re invented stereotypes about Muslims and used these negative images to achieve particular Protestant theological and political purposes including missionary aims They did so when disseminating gender critiques widely to Protestant men women and children Why did they re invent Islam Deanna Ferree Womack argues that they did so to reinforce Protestant theological claims to justify their evangelistic endeavors to express both humanitarian concern and Eurocentric views of the world and to support British and American cultural economic and military expansion Simultaneously however this same missionary movement educated its constituents about diverse Islamic cultures in part by providing humanizing images of Islam Missionaries also formed personal relationships with Muslims that would open pathways toward formal efforts of Christian Muslim dialogue after the mid twentieth century Americans have inherited all of these legacies In revisiting this history readers will find new possibilities for building a more open and just future

Christianity and Islam John J. Johnson,2020-09-29 This volume serves to refute the popularly held belief that Christians and Muslims worship the same God showing that Christianity and Islam radically disagree on the nature and attributes of God It also argues that they present Jesus in contradictory terms regarding his divinity and the historicity of the crucifixion Additionally the two religions have fundamentally different understandings of human nature sin and scripture In honestly pointing out the reasons why these great religions cannot be reconciled this book will appeal to theologians as well as educated Christian and Muslim laypersons Fairs and Markets in the Roman Empire Luuk de Ligt,2023-01-16 Periodic markets are institutions of crucial importance in all pre industrial economies Yet the subject has been given little attention by Roman historians The aim of this book is to remedy this state of affairs through an empire wide study of annual bi annual monthly and weekly markets The method used involves the interpretation of the ancient evidence in terms of economic and anthropological theory and against the background of comparative data Dr de Ligt starts by demonstrating the continued importance of local and regional fairs throughout the imperial period Special attention is devoted to the role of both annual fairs and high frequency periodic markets in the rural economy In the second half of the book the scope of the discussion is extended to social and political aspects Finally the book addresses such topics as urban resistance towards neighbouring rural markets and the widespread practice of waiving customs duties for the duration of largescale religious festivals

Muqarnas, Volume 24 Gülru Necipoglu,2007-12-31 Muqarnas is sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts In Muqarnas articles are being published on all aspects of Islamic visual culture historical and contemporary as well as articles dealing with unpublished textual primary sources The Best of All Possible Islands Richard Maddox,2012-02-01 The 1992 world s fair in Seville serves as a vantage point from which to examine Spain s developing democracy and Europe s emerging unification according to Richard Maddox in The Best of All Possible Islands Visited by over fourteen million people the Seville Expo drew the participation of more than one hundred countries and dozens of corporations As part of Spain s miraculous year in which Barcelona hosted the summer Olympics and Madrid was designated the Cultural Capital of Europe the Expo advanced a remarkably optimistic cosmopolitan and liberal vision of the past present and future of the new Spain and the new Europe Yet no aspect of this vision went unchallenged and the Expo was at the center of fierce political rivalries and dramatic manifestations of popular discontent In an engaging and accessible narrative Richard Maddox demonstrates how visitors and local residents understood the significance of the event in ways that largely escaped the knowledge and control of the Expo's organizers. Understanding how and why this occurred casts critical light on the transformation of Spain since the end of the Franco dictatorship in 1976 and illuminates some of the key cultural and political dilemmas that processes of European and global integration pose for citizens of democratic societies.
