Theoretical Issues in Reading Comprehension Rand J. Spiro,Bertram C. Bruce,William F. Brewer,2017-11-03 Research in cognitive psychology linguistics and artificial intelligence the three disciplines that have the most direct application to an understanding of the mental processes in reading is presented in this multilevel work originally published in 1980 that attempts to provide a systematic and scientific basis for understanding and building a comprehensive theory of reading comprehension The major focus is on understanding the processes involved in the comprehension of written text Underlying most of the contributions is the assumption that skilled reading comprehension requires a coordination of text with context in a way that goes far beyond simply chaining together the meanings of a string of decoded words The topics discussed are divided into five general areas Global Issues Text Structure Language Knowledge of the World and Inference Effects of Prior Language Experience and Comprehension Strategies and Facilitators and represent a broad base of methodology and data that should be of interest not only to those concerned with the reading process but also to basic science researchers in psychology linguistics artificial intelligence and related disciplines

Conversations of the Mind Rebecca William Mlynarczyk,2013-10-18 Asking students to write journals that reflect on their learning has become a widespread pedagogical practice in recent years However the scholarly literature does not address certain key questions about how journal writing aids learning Is there something inherent in journal writing that encourages students to write reflectively What psycholinguistic or cognitive factors help to explain the power of journal writing Why do some students use journals to write prolifically and creatively while others limit their responses to summarizing the assigned course reading Why do teachers find some journal entries so much more engaging than others How do teachers ways of responding to journals affect their students development as writers and thinkers This book addresses such questions through a careful analysis of the journal writing of the students in the author s ESL classes at a large urban college It contains detailed case studies of five culturally and linguistically diverse students with widely differing responses to journal writing To teachers of composition for both first and second language students and to teachers of graduate courses in education and qualitative research this book offers a contextualized description of journal writings as a complex social activity By emphasizing the need for educators to reexamine their pedagogy and to learn from their students Conversations of the Mind is an indispensable contribution to the emerging literature of teacher research and reflective practice Just RISE UP! Sarah Francis Martin, InScribed, 2014-10-14 Sarah remembers the exact moment when the relationship between her faith and her entire life came into clear focus Sitting in her favorite red chair with a comfy blanket and a cup of hot tea she snuggled in with her Bible and a new book The book was huge several hundred pages long and yet it didn't intimidate her Written by the beloved Chuck Colson How Now Shall We Live focused the lens of Sarah's life and spelled out a segregation that she had unknowingly been living with a segregation between her faith and the rest of her life She has since come to understand that The Lord designed each and every one of us uniquely and put a dream in our heart that is attached to His agenda for this world Many of us have felt the stirring in our heart to make a difference with our life yet we don't always know how The key she found was to surrender to God's leading seek him first and allow him to do the big things He has planned with our life In the end God's agenda and our dreams and passions will intersect around one very important phrase a battle cry if you will Make Jesus Famous Based on Psalm 145 this invigorating study motivates women to do life differently by making Jesus famous in all aspects of life Just RISE UP is a call to get off the couch of complacency live a life of praise with a humble posture and Kingdom perspective and step into a life of true purpose Features include Verse by verse study of Psalm 145 Snippets of conversations with Sarah's readers Journaling prompts to help the reader dig deeper Conversation guide for small groups Make Teaching Sustainable Paul Emerich France, 2023-08-18 Rethink your teaching practice with six mindset shifts that will transform how you approach the job ensuring that you can sustain your energy and effectiveness while empowering and supporting learners Traditional approaches to the practice of teaching are unsustainable Too many educators are disengaging burning out and leaving the profession in response to stressors both inside and outside of schools And high teacher turnover has a negative effect on our students In Make Teaching Sustainable Paul Emerich France explores six mindset shifts that you can implement to improve your educational environment while also supporting and empowering the students you lead Humanity over industry Collectivism over individualism Empowerment over control Minimalism over maximalism Process over product Flexibility over fixedness The goal of sustainable teaching is not simply to have teachers do less work but also to help focus efforts on effective efficient and meaningful practices that make learning richer for students Guided by recent research and interviews with practitioners in the field France explores how mindset and practice shifts interact with themes of healing regeneration vulnerability partnership ritual and simplicity He also outlines tangible benefits to sustainable teaching from a reduction in burnout to an increase in student engagement with learning Whether you're a teacher coach or administrator Make Teaching Sustainable will inspire you to embark on a practicable action oriented path to sustainability ensuring that you can continue to be nurtured supported and effective in the profession that you love Meaning-Centered Leadership Barbara E. Artificial Intelligence in Accounting Othmar M. Lehner, Carina Knoll, 2022-08-05 Artificial intelligence AI and Big Data based applications in accounting and auditing have become pervasive in recent years However research on the societal implications of the widespread and partly unregulated use of AI and Big Data in several industries remains scarce despite salient and competing utopian and dystopian narratives This book focuses on the transformation of accounting and auditing based on AI and Big Data It not only provides a thorough and critical overview of the status quo and the reports surrounding these technologies but it also presents a future outlook on the ethical and normative implications concerning opportunities risks and limits The book discusses topics such as future human machine collaboration cybernetic approaches to decision making and ethical guidelines for good corporate governance of AI based algorithms and Big Data in accounting and auditing It clarifies the issues surrounding the digital transformation in this arena delineates its boundaries and highlights the essential issues and debates within and concerning this rapidly developing field The authors develop a range of analytic approaches to the subject both appreciative and sceptical and synthesise new theoretical constructs that make better sense of human machine collaborations in accounting and auditing This book offers academics a variety of new research and theory building on digital accounting and auditing from and for accounting and auditing scholars economists organisations and management academics and political and philosophical thinkers Also as a landmark work in a new area of current policy interest it will engage regulators and policy makers reflective practitioners and media commentators through its authoritative contributions editorial framing and discussion and sector studies and cases
