Modern Christian Thought Twentieth Century V 2:

Modern Christian Thought: The twentieth century James C. Livingston, Francis Schüssler Fiorenza, This widely acclaimed introduction to modern Christian thought formerly published by Prentice Hall provides full scholarly accounts of the major movements and thinkers theologians and philosophers in the Christian tradition since the eighteenth century Enlightenment together with solid historical background and critical assessments This second edition deals with the entire modern period in both Europe and America and is the first to include extensive treatment of modern Catholic thinkers Evangelical thought and Black and Womanist theology Paul Tillich and His System of Paradoxical Correlation Charles Amarkwei, 2020-05-05

This book shows the paradoxical mode by which Christians keep their faith in the Christian message as they relate with science It reveals how Paul Tillich's method of correlation helps us to understand how Christians interact with science without necessarily conflicting separating and dialoguing and synthesizing with each other It rules out natural theology but provides a non eclectic theology of nature that frees Christians to be involved in science meaningfully and without undermining their faith Peculiar Faith Jay Emerson Johnson, 2014-03-01 Residing at the intersection of constructive theology and critical social theory this book provides a resource for both students and clergy to reinterpret Christian theology and re imagine Christian faith in the twenty first century The author seeks to encourage and equip Christian faith communities to move beyond the decades long stalemate over human sexuality and gender identity because Queer gifts emerge in Christian communities when lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT people no longer feel compelled to justify their presence in those communities Useful in both seminary classrooms and in congregational settings the book is a contribution to the still emerging field of queer theology translating the rigors of scholarly research into transforming proposals for faith communities Don't Stop Believing Michael E. Wittmer, 2009-08-30 Must you believe something to be saved Does the kingdom of God include non Christians Is hell for real and forever These are big questions Hard questions Questions that divide Christians along conservative and liberal lines Conservatives love their beliefs and liberals believe in their love Each pushes the other to opposite extremes Fundamentalists imply that it doesn't matter how we live as long as we believe in Jesus while some Emergent Christians respond that it doesn't matter what we believe as long as we live like him Theologian Michael Wittmer calls both sides out of bounds and crafts a third way that retains the insights of each He examines ten key questions that confront contemporary Christians and shows why both right belief and right practice are necessary for authentic Christianity Here is an urgent reminder that best practices can only arise from true beliefs Genuine Christians never stop serving because they never stop loving and they never stop loving because they never stop believing

The Great War and the Death of God Charles A. O'Connor, 2014-04-07 A compelling analysis of how World War I spurred the rise of atheism and the subsequent effect on Western theology philosophy literature and art The catastrophic Great War left humanity in a world no longer trustworthy and reassuring but seemingly meaningless and indifferent Instead of redressing humanity's cosmic alienation postwar Western culture abandoned its concern for cosmic meaning lost its confidence in human reason and enabled the scientific worldview of neo Darwinian materialism to emerge and eventually dominate the Western mind According to the proponents of that worldview science is the only source of genuine truth nature is the product of a blind evolutionary process and reality at bottom is just physics and chemistry Thus God is dead and continued belief in a transcendentally purposeful universe is intellectually indefensible and either disingenuous or delusional By turning away from the eternal questions about the nature of reality Western culture effectively ceded unwarranted credibility and prominence to neo Darwinian materialism including its recently strident New Atheism O Connor revisits the 20th century's journey from Nietzsche's declaration of the death of God to the rise of materialism as the dominant worldview of western intelligentsia We live in a world that has largely expelled both mind and meaning from the citadels of serious intellectual pursuit and O Connor's book is a fascinating and scholarly expedition into the how and why of that troubling development Carter Phipps author of Evolutionaries I found this topic to be top rate The book is well researched and conceived nicely narrated and analyzed and an original body of inquiry into a challenging fascinating intellectual tradition Ronald M Johnson Professor Emeritus of American History Georgetown University

The Synod of Pistoia and Vatican II Shaun Blanchard, 2020 In this book Shaun Blanchard uses a close study of the Synod of Pistoia 1786 to argue that the roots of the Vatican II reforms must be pushed back beyond the widely acknowledged twentieth century forerunners of the Council beyond Newman and the Tübingen School in the nineteenth century to the eighteenth century in which a variety of reform movements attempted ressourcement and aggiornamento Berkouwer and Catholicism Eduardo Echeverria, 2013-04-28 Gerrit Cornelis Berkouwer 1903 1996 was a great master of dogmatic and ecumenical theology He was a Reformed Protestant thinker with roots in Dutch neo Calvinism a holder of the Chair in Dogmatics 1945 1974 at the Free University Amsterdam a position previously held by his two illustrious neo Calvinist predecessors Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 Echeverria provides a much needed in depth analysis and critique of his theology particularly his evolving relationship with Catholicism in light of Vatican II His contention is that Berkouwer's careful and nuanced examination of Catholic theology as well as possible responses to his critiques offers important clues for the contemporary ecumenical project

George Lindbeck Shaun C. Brown, 2022-07-15 George Lindbeck wrote one of the most often read and debated theological works of the twentieth century The Nature of Doctrine Despite the work's wide readership few read the book considering his work as an ecumenist In addition few have read Lindbeck's other writings This work seeks to remedy this situation by providing 1 a context for understanding The Nature of Doctrine 2 a corrective to misreadings of Lindbeck's work 3 an introduction to his broader corpus and 4 some possible ways in which Lindbeck's work can contribute to future ecumenical discussion and to Christian theological practice more broadly It will do so by focusing upon several key roles or aspects of Lindbeck's life and thought from his understanding of his own Lutheran background and his participation in Lutheran Catholic dialogue to his training in medieval philosophy and theology and later work on the church as Israel
