Carol, Zugelder, Bryan S., Manner, Jane C., 2020-03-27 Rural poverty encompasses a distinctive deprivation in quality of life related to a lack of educational support and resources as well as unique issues related to geographical cultural community and social isolation While there have been many studies and accommodations made for the impoverished in urban environments those impoverished in rural settings have been largely overlooked and passed over by current policy The Handbook of Research on Leadership and Advocacy for Children and Families in Rural Poverty is an essential scholarly publication that creates awareness and promotes action for the advocacy of children and families in rural poverty and recommends interdisciplinary approaches to support the cognitive social and emotional needs of children and families in poverty Featuring a wide range of topics such as mental health foster care and public policy this book is ideal for academicians counselors social workers mental health professionals early childhood specialists school psychologists administrators policymakers researchers and students Eva Galuska and the Christmas Carp Kathleen Clauson, 2007-12-19 Eva Galuska and the Christmas Carp is a magical Christmas story told by Jozef Mieszko about his own life He is a successful young man who has it all a beautiful golden haired wife two young sons who worship him a rewarding career and a home with great equity a fairytale castle like brownstone on Chicagos trendy Gold Coast Jozefs parents first generation Polish immigrants achieved the American dream with sacrifice tenacity and hard work and they own and operate an Old World style Polish bakery and delicatessen Their store is located in the heart of Bucktown an old Polish neighborhood near St Marys of the Angels Catholic Church one of Chicagos actual historical landmarks known for its spectacular golden dome its glorious rooftop angels and its mysterious blue light in the cupola that can be glimpsed from the

Kennedy Expressway Even though Jozef is proud of his family heritage and he enjoys helping his parents at their store he realizes he is not a people person like his father and he chooses a career as a computer programmer rather than pursuing the family business as his father puts it Jozef prefers to lose his eyesight to blue screened elektronika A few days before Christmas Jozef makes a routine stop at his parents store on his way home from work and he runs into Eva Galuska a strikingly beautiful seductive woman who is a friend of his family Eva is a talented seamstress who has always seemed breath taking and mysterious but after their brief flirtatious encounter in his fathers store Jozef finds himself unexpectedly attracted to her and cannot get her out of his mind This unexpected lust leads Jozef to question many aspects of his life and these confusing thoughts about Eva lead him to one particular childhood memory that haunts him revealing his own guilt and feelings that he could have somehow prevented it from happening in the first place For Jozefs family the holidays represent the most profitable time of the year as well as the traditional Polish religious celebration of the birth of Christ For Jozef the glow of Christmas is a magical time when anything is possible the twinkle of lights brighten the world at the darkest time of the year and at the same time the celebration of Christs birth is an impetus for spiritual rebirth Jozef sets out on a journey of self discovery sharing his memories perceptions personal thoughts and problems with the reader He questions the blend of old rituals and superstitions with religion in an attempt to discover his own beliefs and to resolve old conflicts still smoldering from the past His meeting with Eva unlocks a forgotten door in his childhood memories revealing his uneasiness with a family Christmas Eve tradition and unravels a tangled paradox of hidden secrets among the layers of complex personalities family traditions superstitions and faith And in spite of his conscious efforts to differ from his father Jozef finds that he possibly shares a secret with his father to which he has been oblivious his entire life As Christmas Eve approaches Jozef recognizes the tiny window of opportunity to resolve his personal issues once and for all Eva Galuska and the Christmas Carp is a celebration of the rich cultural heritage and the languages the culinary specialties the folklore and superstitions of Chicagos ethnic communities particularly focused on Chicagos Polonia And the fictional story of Jozef Mieszko intertwined with history and actual landmarks of Chicagos magnificent landscapes reveals a contemporary yet tangled plot that could happen to any family in America or elsewhere This story at Christmastime sheds light on Eastern European holiday traditions still practiced today but also opens the door for Jozefs spiritual awakening and in a sense his rebirth as he listens to the Black Madonna and follows St Marys of the Angels mysteriously

The Christ of God Beatrice Francis Carey, 2024-01-04

If our lives are built on the foundation of the Word of GOD it will be that we will seek Him more and more We will want to honor Him in as many venues as possible I think if Jesus the Christ of GOD was here today He would be using every platform available to declare His Word Jesus lives through His Word so the more it is honored and declared the more He is glorified For the most part GOD S Word has been ignored lately When this great country of ours was founded by Christian fathers the Bible was the textbook children learned to read out of at school Then we became too prideful and sophisticated to keep

Christ central We started relying on ourselves and our inventions and strayed from our first love As Hosea rightly proclaimed Thou hast gone a whoring from thy GOD We have cast off the thing that is good and are deeply corrupted He continues his rebuke warning Israel of GOD S wrath It is the same for us today GOD will visit us for our sins and our glory shall fly away as a bird Hos 9 11 The message is always the same return unto your Maker We are like children following every pied piper on jump street Hopefully with more chapters on our King and Savior Jesus Christ we will flee to His open arms We do not want to hear The glory is departed not from our country or any country No we want the King s glory to rain down upon us Hosea s beautiful words remind us According to their pasture so were they filled They were filled and their heart was exalted Therefore have they forgotten Me O Israel thou hast destroyed thyself but in Me is thine help I will be thy King Where is any other that may save thee Hos 13 6 9 10

In Our Own Words Jeffrey J. Shultz, Alison Cook-Sather, 2001 If educational reform is to succeed it must attend to the perspectives of students those most directly affected by schooling but least often consulted about its efficacy This is the premise of the first book both to feature student perspectives on school and to foreground student voices middle and high school students are the primary authors of the eight chapters collected in this volume aptly titled In Our Own Words Reflecting differences of gender racial and ethnic background and school context the student authors write passionately and eloquently about their experiences of and desires for school Through their explorations of topics as diverse as bilingual education class cutting teacher bias race relations in school what girls need from their education and innovative curricular models these student authors not only counter stereotypes of apathetic teenagers but also clearly identify what hinders and what supports their learning For both the insights offered and the freshness of the students voices this collection is a must read for anyone who has a stake in making school a place where students can and want to learn

Mathematics at the Margins Elizabeth Warren, Jodie Miller, 2016-03-17 This book reports the impact a four year longitudinal study Representations Oral Language and Engagement in Mathematics RoleM had on teachers and students from 16 schools in disadvantaged contexts It offers theories with regard to the interplay between teaching and learning mathematics as teachers and students in these contexts implement a mathematics program The data are longitudinal drawn from 154 teachers and their students up to 1738 students from the first four years of school Foundation to Year 3 To ascertain the effectiveness of the RoleM Professional Learning model teachers were interviewed three times a year and pre and post tests were administered to students at the beginning and end of each year Students results indicated that all students understanding of mathematics improved significantly with the ESL students showing the greatest gains Their results matched the norm referenced expectations for all Australian students of this age This book shares the journey of these teachers Indigenous teacher aides and students It outlines the dimensions of the research findings that supported teachers to become effective teachers of mathematics and assisted students in becoming successful learners of mathematics The book also draws on the expertise of researchers from both Canada and New Zealand They share the similarities and the differences between RoleM findings and their own contexts in order to draw general conclusions for the effective teaching and learning of mathematics at the margins of society Maternal Child Nursing Care - E-Book Shannon E.
