Responsible Design in Applied Linguistics: Theory and Practice Albert Weideman,2016-09-05 No mere history of applied linguistics this volume presents a framework for interpreting the development of applied linguistics as a discipline It offers a systematic account of how applied linguistics has developed articulating the philosophical premises that have informed both its emergence and its subsequent growth It asks questions that are seldom asked Where does the discipline derive from Where is it heading What directions has it already taken Which direction should it embrace in future What is the relative worth of all of the variation in design and methods that have been developed by applied linguists In defining applied linguistics as a discipline of design it takes us beyond the diffuse and sometimes contradictory conventional definitions of the field The framework of design principles it proposes not only helps to explain the historical development of applied linguistics but also provides a potential justification for solutions to language problems It presents us with nothing less than an emerging theory of applied linguistics

Transformative Pedagogical Perspectives on Home Language Use in Classrooms

Jules, Janice E.,Belgrave, Korah L.,2020-09-25 Linguists researchers and other practitioners in language education acknowledge that the resolution of language problems associated with breaking down language and cultural barriers that hinder the growth of learners self identities and national identities is ongoing In fact even with decades of research in home language use in the classroom there are still classrooms worldwide where learners are deprived of the opportunity of building their self esteem confidence and autonomy by communicating with their native language The global nature of communication requires speakers to use all the languages in their repertoire effectively thus reinforcing the need to encourage home language use in classrooms Transformative Pedagogical Perspectives on Home Language Use in Classrooms is a cutting edge research publication on the effective use of home language in the classroom that emphasizes the significance of this activity to the success of the overall language development of the learner Particular attention is given to transformative pedagogy and the provision of valuable insights into how the teacher can guide and assist learners in the development of critical thinking skills In addition the book provides content that enables practitioners in language education and parents to explore their roles in assisting children in breaking down the language and cultural barriers that hinder the growth of their self identity and national identity Highlighting topics such as engineering education cultural responsiveness and transformative pedagogy this book is essential for linguists academicians education professionals curriculum designers policymakers administrators instructional designers researchers and students International Journal of Language Studies (IJLS) □ volume 11(2) Mohammad Ali Salmani Nodoushan,2017-04-06 PAPERS IN THIS ISSUE A rhetoric thematic analysis of surah Waqi a 1 16 Studying Chinese as a foreign language Learner attitudes and language learning 17 40 Iconicity in the syntactic structure of Mandarin Chinese 41 66 The impact of English versus Persian songs on Iranian EFL learners mastery of English letters 67 88 The role of culture in cooperative learning 89 120 The interface between ESP genre analysis and rhetorical structure analysis 121 160 Four key focus on form options 161 171 Book Review 172 185
