When All Else Fails Jason Brennan, 2020-12-08 The economist Albert O Hirschman famously argued that citizens of democracies have only three possible responses to injustice or wrongdoing by their government we may leave complain or comply But in When All Else Fails Jason Brennan argues that there is fourth option When governments violate our rights we may resist We may even have a moral duty to do so For centuries almost everyone has believed that we must allow the government and its representatives to act without interference no matter how they behave We may complain protest sue or vote officials out but we can t fight back But Brennan makes the case that we have no duty to allow the state or its agents to commit injustice We have every right to react with acts of uncivil disobedience We may resist arrest for violation of unjust laws We may disobey orders sabotage government property or reveal classified information We may deceive ignorant irrational or malicious voters We may even use force in self defense or to defend others The result is a provocative challenge to long held beliefs about how citizens may respond when government officials behave unjustly or abuse their power
