Everyday Ethics Brian Huss, 2024-10-10 Everyday Ethics is an engaging treatment of the ethical questions that we all must answer on a regular basis Each of the book's forty chapters provides short pro and con arguments on a particular issue designed to get readers talking and thinking about obligations rights societal expectations and ethical principles Instructors are sure to appreciate the way in which Everyday Ethics generates interest and participation from their students on day one And students will appreciate the opportunity to engage with concerns that actually arise in their day to day lives and over which they have control

Creative Morality Don MacNiven, 2023-04-21 Creative Morality is a philosophical study of moral dilemmas Western moral thought has relied on two basic ethical perspectives Utilitarianism and Kantianism to resolve dilemmas MacNiven argues that no real progress can be made with modern moral problems unless these traditions are coherently synthesised The book deals with diverse topics such as academic honesty medical confidentiality terrorism and euthanasia and the hypothetical dilemmas used are based on real life situations so that theory might be tested against reality Yet the solutions are not definitive because as MacNiven demonstrates creativity is an intrinsic characteristic of moral thought Sportsmanship Tim Delaney, 2016-02-17 Sportsmanship is a broad concept ethics fairness honor and self control

Some people find it difficult to define what makes a good sport but state I know one when I see one This collection of new essays brings together the work of more than two dozen contributors from around the world who teach sportsmanship in a range of academic disciplines including sociology psychology economics education kinesiology and applied athletics Topics include the moral ambiguities of cheating recreation in prison ethics and character formation coaching perspectives gender race and the portrayal of sportsmanship in film Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
