

Reflective Essay

Introduction

My development since 2013, the beginning of my university career, has been sizeable not only in physical and mental ability, but also in cognitive shifts, career development, skills acquirement (physical, academic, interpersonal and intra-personal) and subject knowledge. Personally I feel I have improved mostly in my personal development, as I started uni with a good foundation of knowledge that I have since built on. The contacts and connections I have formed over the past few years have been invaluable to me and the network I have created will be equally valuable for future employment. This essay will highlight in more detail my personal and professional development, and what issues I feel might affect my future career prospects.

Professional

I've always been a physically able person and I've always loved the challenge of physical activity. Since I was young I've been an avid climber of all things, mostly trees until I was a little older and I discovered rock climbing. I had acquired my three star kayak qualification (BCU, 2011) by the age of 15, the motivation being a two week trip kayaking down the Kali River in North India. There are many other outdoor experiences I had the opportunity to take part in whilst I was young, for example, a four day trip canoeing in Sweden and acquiring a high rank in both the army and navy sections of the CCF (Combined Cadet Force) in my secondary school Mill Hill Foundation (Mill Hill School Foundation, 2012).

During the summer of 2012, once I had finished sixth form, I worked at GoApe! (a high wire course) (Adventure Forest Ltd, 2015) and was climbing two to three times a week indoors. I then spent my gap year working in an outdoor centre in North Devon called Yenworthy Lodge (Yenworthy Lodge, no date), where I had my first outdoor climbing experience. I completed my BASI 2 (British Association of Snowsports Instructors) (BASI, no date) snowboard coaching qualification in Switzerland, and completed a 3 month solo walk from Lands End to John O'Groats for charity (raised £3000) (Greaves, 2013). Based on these adventures, it is clear that I have a passion for the outdoors and therefore plenty of outdoor experience before I came to university, even if at the time I was putting all my efforts into being a professional musician.

During the first year of university I had the opportunity to explore lots of different outdoor sports that I hadn't done before, so I could decide from an informed point which ones I wanted to specialise in. Caving and bushcraft became prevalent sports and are probably now my most favoured, whereas climbing and kayaking (the sports I had most previous experience in) surprisingly took a back seat. I have completed my cave leader training for both Level 1 and Level 2 (Evans, 2015), and I'm looking towards achieving the assessments this year. Caving is something I was always curious about, and to move through the sport from beginner, to advanced, to being able to facilitate other peoples caving experiences, has been a great source of joy for me.

I've also completed the training for my practitioners qualification for bushcraft (Institute for Outdoor Learning, 2015). Like caving, I've always had an interest in the natural world, however with bushcraft I've had lots of previous experiences where I've used bushcraft skills, even though I perhaps wasn't aware of it at the time. Having a bushcraft skill and being aware of all the deeper intricacies of the skill are very different, and I feel that I now have a deeper understanding of many bushcraft skills. Not only do I feel that I can complete a bushcraft related task but I am confident I would be able to pass those skills on to others.

Although climbing has not been a huge focus for me over the past three years, my skill set has still progressed. I have completed my SPA (Single Pitch Award) training with the hopes of completing

Reflections on Native-Newcomer

Relations J.R. Miller, 2004-12-15 The twelve essays that make up Reflections on Native Newcomer Relations illustrate the development in thought by one of Canada's leading scholars in the field of Native history J R Miller The collection comprising pieces that were written over a period spanning nearly two decades deals with the evolution of historical writing on First Nations and Métis methodological issues in the writing of Native newcomer history policy matters including residential schools and linkages between the study of Native newcomer relations and academic governance and curricular matters Half of the essays appear here in print for the first time and all use archival published and oral history evidence to throw light on Native Newcomer relations Miller argues that the nature of the relationship between Native peoples and newcomers in Canada has varied over time based on the reasons the two parties have had for interacting The relationship deteriorates into attempts to control and coerce Natives during periods in which newcomers do not perceive them as directly useful and it improves when the two parties have positive reasons for cooperation Reflections on Native Newcomer Relations opens up for discussion a series of issues in Native newcomer history It addresses all the trends in the discipline of the past two decades and never shies from showing their contradictions as well as those in the author's own thinking as he matured as a scholar

Reflections on the Cuban Missile Crisis

Raymond Garthoff, 2011-03-01 The Soviet response to the first edition of Reflections has been a prime example of the new openness under glasnost in discussing previously taboo subjects Using new revelations such as the fact that Moscow had twice as many troops in Cuba as the Kennedy administration believed from key Soviet and Cuban Sources Garthoff has revised his earlier analysis to produce the most accurate eye opening story yet of the 1963 crisis In this book Raymond L Garthoff a participant in the crisis deliberations of the U S government reflects on the nature of the crisis its consequences and its lessons for the future He provides a unique combination of memoir historical analysis and political interpretations He gives particular attention to the aftermath and afterlife of the crisis and to its bearing on current and future policy In the first edition of the book in 1987 the Garthoff presented a number of facts for the first time Since then more information has become available particularly from Soviet sources in part from conferences in which Garthoff participated but even more from individual interviews and research. This new information, much of it presented here in this volume for the first time, helps to fill in gaps in our knowledge about events and motivations on the Soviet side. More importantly, it enlarges our understanding of the crisis interaction.

Reflections on the International Association for Media and Communication Research Jörg Becker, Robin Mansell, 2023-04-29 Throughout its 65 year history the International Association for Media and Communication Research (IAMCR) has sought to facilitate international exchanges and research collaborations among academics and journalists in the field of media and communication. Created during a time of strong ideological tension following World War II in 1957 and with the support of UNESCO, the contributors to this edited collection highlight how the IAMCR and its members shaped the field of media and communications research. From its beginnings focusing on the mass media including the press and journalism education, today the Association attracts researchers and practitioners who undertake critical analysis of contemporary media and communications, including online platforms and their governance. Consistent themes throughout the Association's history have been its concern with human rights, law, culture, and the political economy of the media and communication industries. Not content simply to understand developments in the media and communications field around the world, the Association's membership has sought to change the world through its published research and its participation in global, regional, national, and local policy debate and practice. This volume is organised in four parts following an introduction authored by editors who are active members of IAMCR. Part I highlights eight prominent scholarly traditions of research which have attracted the interest of scholars from around the world, as well as the way the Association has sought to be inclusive of early career scholars. Part II offers seven chapters which bring to light the political struggles of a membership seeking to engage in scholarship across the East-West divide and to contribute to global debates aimed at fostering an inclusive, fair, and equitable international information and communication order through engagement with United Nations-sponsored initiatives. Part III turns to accounts of the way members from selected countries and regions have contributed to the Association's scholarly work. The last part highlights the significant scholarly and institution-building contributions of James Halloran, IAMCR's President from 1972 to 1988, and other prominent contributors to the study of culture and the political economy of media and communications.

Processor and System-on-Chip Simulation Rainer Leupers, Olivier Temam, 2010-09-15 Simulation of computer architectures has made rapid progress recently. The primary application areas are hardware/software performance estimation and optimization, as well as functional and timing verification. Recent innovative technologies such as retargetable simulator generation, dynamic binary translation, or sampling simulation have enabled widespread use of processor and system-on-chip (SoC) simulation tools in the semiconductor and embedded system industries Simultaneously processor and SoC simulation is still a very active research area e g what amounts to higher simulation speed flexibility and accuracy speed trade offs This book presents and discusses the principle technologies and state of the art in high level hardware architecture simulation both at the processor and the system on chip level Moral Reflections on the Book of Job Pope Gregory I,2014 V 1 This first volume of the work contains the preface and books 1 5 accompanied by an introduction by Mark DelCogliano Millennial Reflections on International Studies Michael Brecher, Frank P. Isa Paper 2 Reflection Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Isa Paper 2 Reflection books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Isa Paper 2 Reflection books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Isa Paper 2 Reflection books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Isa Paper 2 Reflection versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Isa Paper 2 Reflection books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Isa Paper 2 Reflection books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Isa Paper 2 Reflection books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Isa Paper 2 Reflection books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of Isa Paper 2 Reflection books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
