Prose and Der Prozess is a novel written by Franz Kafka between 1914 and 1915 and published posthumously in 1925. One of his best known works, it tells the story of Josef K, a man arrested and prosecuted by a remote, inaccessible authority, with the nature of his crime revealed neither to him nor to the reader. Heavily influenced by Dostoyevsky's Crime and Punishment and The Brothers Karamazov, Kafka even went so far as to call Dostoyevsky a blood relative.<sup>2</sup> Like Kafka's other novels, The Trial was never completed, although it does include a chapter which appears to bring the story to an intentionally abrupt ending. After Kafka's death in 1924, his friend and literary executor Max Brod edited the text for publication by Verlag Die Schmiede. The original manuscript is held at the Museum of Modern Literature, Marbach am Neckar, Germany. The first English language translation by Willa and Edwin Muir was published in 1937.<sup>3</sup> In 1999, the book was listed in Le Monde's 100 Books of the Century and as No. 2 of the Best German Novels of the Twentieth Century.

Classic Franz Kafka Full English Translation The Trial / Der Prozess Franz Kafka

On his thirtieth birthday, the chief financial officer of a bank, Josef K, is unexpectedly arrested by two unidentified agents from an unspecified agency for an unspecified crime. The agents' boss later arrives and holds a mini tribunal in the room of K's neighbor, Fraulein Burstner. K is not taken away, however, but left free and told to await instructions from the Committee of Affairs. He goes to work and that night apologizes to Fraulein Burstner for the intrusion into her room. At the end of the conversation, he suddenly kisses her. K receives a phone call summoning him to court, and the coming Sunday is arranged as the date. No time is set, but the address is given to him. The address turns out to be a huge tenement building K has to explore to find the court, which turns out to be in the attic. The room is airless, shabby, and crowded, and although he has no idea what he is charged with or what authorizes the process, K makes a long speech denigrating the whole process, including the agents who arrested him. During this speech, an attendant's wife and a man engage in sexual activities. K then returns home. K later goes to visit the court again, although he has not been summoned, and finds that it is not in session. He instead talks with the attendant's wife, who attempts to seduce him into taking her away and who gives him more information about the process and offers to help him. K later goes with the attendant to a higher level of the attic, where the shabby and airless offices of the court are housed.
