Jamboree Activity Guide A Jackie Holderness, Neil Griffiths, 2005 Resources in Education , 1995-10 APAIS
1992: Australian public affairs information service , Kakadu Jack resource pack Brenda Parkes, 2000 Contingent Valuation R. Carson, 2012-01-01 This major reference work the first of its kind provides a comprehensive and authoritative introduction to the large and growing literature on contingent valuation It includes entries on over 7 500 contingent valuation papers and studies from over 130 countries covering both the published and grey literatures This book provides an interpretive historical account of the development of contingent valuation the most commonly used approach to placing a value on goods not normally sold in the marketplace The major fields catalogued here include culture the environment and health application This bibliography is an ideal starting point for researchers wanting to find other studies that have valued goods or used techniques similar to those they are interested in For those wanting to conduct meta analyses the book will serve as an invaluable guide to source material For those wanting to conduct meta analyses the book will serve as an invaluable guide to source material In addition to the print edition we offer access for purchasers of the book to a website providing the contents of as a searchable Word document and in a variety of standard bibliographic database forms Contingent Valuation is an indispensable reference source for researchers scholars and policymakers concerned with survey approaches to the problem of environmental valuation Natural Resource Damages Kevin M. Ward, John W. Duffield, 1992 Resources in Education , 1995 The House That Jack Built James Colman, 2016-09-01 This is the story of how an ordinary bloke from the bush became the key figure in a movement that would change the shape of our cities and bring about lasting political and legal reform This is the story of the house that Jack Munday built Without the green bans movement of the 1970s Sydney and many other cities would look very different Pulling together an unlikely alliance of environmentalists and union players earned Jack Munday a reputation as both the best known unionist and best known conservationist in Australia Under his leadership the movement fought against the slash and burn philosophy that almost saw The Rocks fitted out with high rise buildings a highway through the centre of Glebe and total development of Centennial Park In this long awaited book James Colman reflects on Jack s remarkable life and his ongoing legacy Munday overturned the bulldozer mentality of the 1960s and 1970s and helped to persuade Australians everywhere to cherish and protect the hertitage of special buildings places and sites APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service , 1993
Contingent Valuation J.A. Hausman, 2012-12-02 The papers in this volume present a quite critical assessment of contingent valuation CV CV is a survey method that attempts to estimate individual values for economic goods by asking people hypothetical questions about their willingness to pay for such goods In economics CV has previously been studied almost solely by economists specializing in environmental economics This book however reports research which is mainly from economists with specialities in economic theory econometrics and public finance rather than from the more narrowly focused research of environmental economists In addition the research of specialists in psychology market research and litigation is included Kakadu & Nitmiluk National Parks, Northern Territory Dean M. Hoatson,2000 A Guide to the rocks landforms plants animals Aboriginal culture and human impact Environmental Economics and Policy Thomas H. Tietenberg,1998 This text can be used to understand the behavioural sources of environmental problems and to provide the foundations for solutions It provides insights from the natural and physical sciences literature and political science

Flammable Australia Richard J Williams,A Malcolm Gill,Ross A Bradstock,2012-02-21 In Flammable Australia Fire Regimes Biodiversity and Ecosystems in a Changing World leading researchers in fire ecology and management discuss how fire regimes have shaped and will continue to shape the distribution and abundance of Australia s highly diverse plants and animals Central to this is the exploration of the concept of the fire regime the cumulative pattern of fires and their individual characteristics fire type frequency intensity season and how variation in regime components affects landscapes and their constituent biota Contributions by 44 authors explore a wide range of topics including classical themes such as pre history and evolution fire behaviour fire regimes in key biomes plant and animal life cycles remote sensing and modelling of fire regimes and emerging issues such as climate change and fire regimes carbon dynamics and opportunities for managing fire regimes for multiple benefits In the face of significant global change the conservation of our native species and ecosystems requires an understanding of the processes at play when fires and landscapes interact This book provides a comprehensive treatment of this complex science in the context of one of the world s most flammable continents Listen... Our Land Is Crying Mary E. White,1997 Australia has extremely serious problems of land and water degradation Our land is crying out for help In order to understand the problems and to find long term solutions we need to see the big picture Foraging and Farming David R. Harris,Gordon C. Hillman,2014-10-30 This book is one of a series of more than 20 volumes resulting from the World Archaeological Congress September 1986 attempting to bring together not only archaeologists and anthropologists from many parts of the world as well as academics from contingent disciplines but also non academics from a wide range of cultural backgrounds This volume develops a new approach to plant exploitation and early agriculture in a worldwide comparative context It modifies the conceptual dichotomy between hunter gatherers and farmers viewing human exploitation of plant resources as a global evolutionary process which incorporated the beginnings of cultivation and crop domestication The studies throughout the book come from a worldwide range of geographical contexts from the Andes to China and from Australia to the Upper Mid West of North America This work is of interest to anthropologists archaeologists botanists and geographers Originally published 1989 APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service ,

Taking the Air Paul Kopas,2007-12-01 In Taking the Air Paul Kopas takes a comprehensive approach to the policy aspects of the management of parks and protected areas He scrutinizes the policy making process for national parks since the mid 1950s and interrogates the rationale and policies that have governed their administration He argues that national parks and park policy reflect not only environmental concerns but also the political and social attitudes of bureaucrats citizens interest groups Aboriginal peoples and legal authorities He explores how the goals of each group have been shaped by the historical context of park policy influencing the shape and weight of their contributions Library of Congress Subject Headings
