Catalogue of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association, of Cincinnati Young Men's Mercantile Library Association (Cincinnati, Ohio), 1855 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1876 Louis XIV's Architect Richard Ballard, 2023-12-30 A must read for those seeking to understand the intersection of politics and art in a pivotal moment of European history This is a study of royal absolutism in a most extreme form in modern European history and of the nature of Louis XIV s concept of personal glory and of the embodiment of France as a new superpower It is a study of political ideas expressed in architecture to establish Versailles as the centre of French world power and royal prestige It is also a personal story full of social cultural and economic history of the period as seen in the life and work of Louis Le Vau from a humble family of craftsmen who was a self taught architect in the early history of the profession skilled in technical craft skills and even grand design He was a major contributor to the architectural glories of Paris including the Louvre Vincennes Versailles and the College of the Four Nations And all achieved despite interference from the great magnates of the age like Mazarin and Colbert and constant mind changing by the King who wanted every feature in the buildings to reflect his concept of personal royal prestige Le Vau was Louis XIV s First Architect from 1654 until his death and disgrace in 1670 The social cultural economic and political backdrop is striking with court intrigue scandal corruption luxury indulgence and the rise of a rich bourgeoisie but the main thrust of the story concerns Louis XIV and the royal personal ambition and the work of a stone cutter s son who became the Sun King s instrument The study is good on the more technical features of architectural history reminiscent of Pevsner s marvellous Buildings of England series
