Phillip London, 2010-11-30 The Crisis That Rocked a Country and a Company In April 2004 an illegally leaked U S Army report thrust CACI an information technology company into the international spotlight by casting suspicion on a CACI employee for being either directly or indirectly responsible for the mistreatment of detainees at Abu Ghraib prison in Iraq At the same time pictures from the abuses were shown on national television and tarnished anyone associated with Abu Ghraib including CACI What ensued was a media frenzy rarely seen by any company in recent decades The media twisted the unsupported allegations into a guilty verdict without regard for the facts or the truth creating a damning public perception of CACI Our Good Name recounts how CACI battled to defend itself against erroneous and malicious reports by a rampaging media how it responded to the wide ranging government investigations and how it overcame misplaced anger and criticism that put the company s dedicated employees
