Grandmother's Story Lin Guifeng, 2013-05-17 This book unfolds the true life story of a Singaporean grandmother It spans the entire years of her life beginning with her birth in 1943 during the Japanese Occupation of Singapore and ending in the new millennium of 2013 The book reveals periods of Lin's difficult and near death infancy her underprivileged and struggling childhood her impoverished teenage years and her emergence from a poor young woman to a successful educated career woman and happily married woman of the 70's 80's and 90's After the year 2000 her life took an unexpected turn and she suffered severe financial loss and emotional trauma Her family life is filled with unbearable sadness and unspeakable pain In addition to their emotional agony Lin and her husband lost half a million dollars of their hard earned life savings and retirement funds through the inconsiderate actions of their loved ones Their subsequent struggle to stay financially afloat and independent is fraught with tears and heartache yet she overcame these obstacles to remain sane and normal to tell her story for her children and grandchildren Grandmother's Story is a poignant tale of what it means to be a daughter a sister a wife a mother and a grandmother told simply and sincerely Do you want to hear Read on Hotel Bolivia: The Culture of Memory in a Refuge from Nazism Leo Spitzer, 2019-08-09 Desperate to escape the increasingly vehement persecution in their homelands thousands of refugees from Nazi dominated Central Europe the majority of them Jews found refuge in Latin America in the 1930s Bolivia became a principal recipient of this influx one of the few remaining places in the entire world to accept Jewish refugees after the German Anschluss of Austria in 1938 Some 20 000 refugees arrived in Bolivia more than in Canada Australia New Zealand South Africa the leading British Commonwealth countries combined In Bolivia the refugees began to reconstruct a version of the world that they had been forced to abandon Their own origins and social situations had been diverse in Central Europe ranging across generational class educational and political differences and incorporating various professional craft and artistic backgrounds But it was Austro German Jewish bourgeois society that provided them with a model for emulation and a common locus for identification in their place of refuge Indeed at the very time when that dynamic social and cultural amalgam was being ruthlessly and systematically destroyed by the Nazis the Jewish refugees in Bolivia attempted to recall and revive a version of it in a land thousands of miles from their home in a country that offered them a haven but in which many of them felt themselves as mere sojourners Hotel Bolivia explores an important but generally neglected aspect of the experience of group displacement the relationship between memory and cultural survival during an era of persecution and genocide Employing oral histories family photographs artistic and documentary portrayals it considers the Third Reich background for the emigration the refugees perceptions of past and future and the role of images and stereotypes in shaping refugee and Bolivian cross cultural communication and acceptance It examines how the immigrants remembered recalled and reshaped the European world they had been forced to abandon in the institutions culture and community they created in Bolivia In documenting life stories and reclaiming the memories and discourses of ordinary persons who might otherwise remain hidden from history Hotel Bolivia contributes to a major objective of contemporary historical studies But it is also directly concerned with theoretical issues increasingly evident in historical writing focusing on the contextualization of memory and the interdependence and tension between memory and history In reflecting on remembered experience over time and between people the ultimate objective of this book is to contribute to the historical study of memory itself A curiously inspiring corner of Holocaust history the story is of how culture and memory survive and change in the shock of new surroundings Adam Hochschild author of King Leopold's Ghost A form of doing history that offers fresh intellectual insights while touching the heart Ruth Behar University of Michigan author of The Vulnerable Observer and Translated Women It is rare that a scholarly book reads like a novel Leo Spitzer's compelling Hotel Bolivia not only is beautifully written but changes the way we think about history This groundbreaking book will become required reading in numerous fields including Latin American studies Jewish studies diaspora studies immigration studies and ethnic studies Jeffrey Lesser Brown University author of Welcoming the Undesirables Brazil and the Jewish Question Evocative thoughtful and otherwise impressive Vividly introduces readers to a little known aspect of refugee history during the Holocaust Kirkus A searing account of the Jewish refugees checkered experience Part memoir part oral history Spitzer's eye opening study uses interviews with surviving refugees now widely dispersed around the world plus letters photographs family albums and archival documents to explore the trauma of displacement Publishers Weekly      Feminism &

Autobiography Tess Coslett, Celia Lury, Penny Summerfield, 2002-01-04 Featuring essays by leading feminist scholars from a variety of disciplines this key text explores the latest developments in autobiographical studies The collection is structured around the inter linked concepts of genre inter subjectivity and memory Whilst exemplifying the very different levels of autobiographical activity going on in feminist studies the contributions chart a movement from autobiography as genre to autobiography as cultural practice and from the analysis of autobiographical texts to a preoccupation with autobiography as method      Trends in Long-term Care United States. My Grandmother's Braid Alina Bronsky, 2021-01-19 The acclaimed author of The Hottest Dishes of the Tartar Cuisine explores the peculiarities of familial relations to tremendous result Asymptote A Lit Hub Most Anticipated Book of 2021 Max lives with his grandparents in a residential home for refugees in Germany When his grandmother a terrifying stubborn matriarch and a former Russian prima donna moved them from the Motherland it was in search of a better life But she is not at all pleased with how things are run in Germany the doctors and teachers are incompetent the food is toxic and the Germans are generally untrustworthy His grandmother has been telling Max that he is an inept clueless weakling since he was a child and she'd spend the day sitting in the back of his classroom to be sure he came to no harm While he may be a dolt in his grandmother's eyes Max is bright enough to notice that his stoic and taciturn grandfather has fallen hopelessly in love with their neighbor Nina When a child is born to Nina that is the spitting image of Max's grandfather things come to a hilarious if dramatic head Everybody will have to learn to defend themselves from Max's all powerful grandmother Alina Bronsky author of The Hottest Dishes of the Tartar Cuisine writes of family dysfunction and machinations with a droll and biting humor a tremendous ear for dialog and a generous heart that is forgiving of human weakness A comic feel bad novel Bronsky has a Dickensian flair for writing about miserable children or rather the miseries of childhood Culture      Mentoring Away the Glass Ceiling in Academia Brenda Marina, 2015-06-10 Mentoring Away the Glass Ceiling in Academia A Cultured Critique is different in that it calls attention to the role mentoring has played on the glass ceiling phenomenon in higher education Narratives by and about the experiences of women of diverse backgrounds in the United States and beyond the borders of this nation shed needed light on the ways in which mentoring influences identity formation and internal coping mechanisms in environments often characterized by marginalization Through these narratives these women serve as quasi mentors and create spaces for other women to survive and thrive within the educational arena

This text honors and extends previous work on the experiences of women academics from diverse backgrounds Through this book there is a call for new ways of understanding the vital role that narratives play in speaking truth to the power of mentoring The insights present an expos of the extent to which politics policies and equity agendas for mentoring have supported or failed women Grandma's Notes on Parenting , Contemporary Translation in Transition Maria Khotimsky, Friederike Reents, Henrieke Stahl, William Waters, 2025-01-07 This book investigates the hybrid multiform nature of contemporary poetry with particular emphasis on recent Russian lyric and its translations into German and English Poetry translation thriving and obstinately open ended is not so much a defined process as a practice of ongoing transit across linguistic and national borders The book s innovative format invites contemporary poets into dialogue with literary translators editors publishers and scholars the conversations among their wide ranging essays poems and exchanges both model and investigate the work of transcultural dialogue As a kind of transition poetry translation engages the composition and disintegration of forms revises relations of producers to receivers mixes and rethinks genres and media translates itself as multilingual writing or language experiment Multiple translations of a poem do not compete but interact reshaping the putative gulf between source and target language In the end this volume underscores the aesthetic productivity of poetry translation and the need to nurture it A must read for anyone interested in the dynamic interplay of poetry language and culture
