The Toughest Kid We Knew Frank Bergon, 2020-06-15 Frank Bergon's newest work is a thoughtful exploration of the ways that memories of random childhood events become unexpected revelations about life in the West. In many senses this project is a personalized version of Two Buck Chuck The Marlboro Man where Bergon explored the ways that a multiethnic and multiracial society shaped and continues to shape the day to day lived realities of the residents and communities of the San Joaquin Valley. Bergon's latest book creation however is more elegiac in tone paying tribute to ranching and farming lives that are disappearing under suburban and exurban sprawl industrial farming and white collar job growth. WIWAK When I Was A Kid Michael Tasker, 2011-11-10 WIWAK is an unconventional look at Baby Boomers growing up in a revolutionary new housing development Levittown Pa. It details the goings on of thousands of ordinary kids whose experiences were unlike those of any others before or since. Up until now this unique time period has been glossed over and stereotyped. But readers of this compilation whether nostalgic Boomers curious kids or social historians will come away with a totally different outlook. This book is funny revealing and sometimes irreverent and covers a period I wouldn't have believed happened if it hadn't happen. When I Was A Kid 8 Simple Tools for Raising Great Kids Dr Todd Cartmell, 2015-12-15 I love my child but parenting is hard. As a child psychologist with over twenty years of experience with families Todd Cartmell knows what works in parenting and what doesn't. Here he gives eight simple tools you need to raise great kids and build a close loving and sturdy family. Practical and full of real life examples 8 Simple Tools is packed with parenting tips like how to Listen well and respond wisely Use affirmation to influence your child Develop a nurturing home culture Correct behavior in lasting ways Designed with busy parents in mind 8 Simple Tools breaks each tool into five short chapters perfect for when you only have a second. Plus each chapter ends with a practical Tip section that summarizes the main point and helps you apply it right away. Employ all eight tools in your parenting and watch your child flourish and your family thrive. Kids who Think Outside the Box Stephanie Freund Lerner, 2005 Look at today's superachievers in business technology the arts sports and politics. What were they like as children and teens and what brought out their incredible talents. In this extraordinary book 22 unparalleled achievers from diverse professions talk about their own experiences offering candid insights on mentoring and empowering children with high potential. Kids Who Think Outside the Box presents strategies for parents teachers and others to use to harness a child's natural inclinations and gifts whatever they may be. First person narratives include Legendary musician and former Beatle Sir Paul McCartney Academy Award R nominated director producer and actor Spike Lee New York City Mayor and former Bloomberg LLP Chief Executive Michael R Bloomberg Goldman Sachs Vice Chairman Robert D Hormats artist Chuck Close hockey legend Rod Gilbert presidential advisor Michael Gerson world renowned heart surgeon Dr Mehmet Oz naturalist and South Pole explorer Tori Murden McClure and others. The book also includes an extensive directory of programs and resources from science camps to performing arts academies leadership institutes elite sports training.

Davinia Andrew Lynch A message for under represented writers We Want You Cl mentine Beauvais Writing and translating children s fiction Holly Bourne Dealing with tough issues in YA fiction Natasha Farrant Writing about love and loss for children Kiran Millwood Hargrave Writing magic into fiction Salvatore Rubbino The craft of the illustrator Deirdre Sullivan Reinventing old stories for new readers The Kids from Nowhere Mr. George Guthridge,2011-04-01 This heart lifting story about uneducable children who lived on a wind swept island in the Bering Sea had no computers and few books and spoke English as a second language With the help of their dedicated and gifted teacher they enter and win the student future problem solving competition for Alaska and compete nationally to win again The Over-Scheduled Child Alvin Rosenfeld,Nicole Wise,2025-06-25 Do you find yourself asking Whose life is it anyway Parenting today has come to resemble a relentless to do list Even parents with the best intentions strive to micro manage every detail of their kids lives and live in constant fear that their child will under perform in any area academic social athletic Lists and schedules meetings and appointments invade our every moment and the need to be the best dominates and undermines our own sense of self as well as our children s In their groundbreaking new book The Over Scheduled Child renowned child psychiatrist Alvin Rosenfeld M D and longtime family issues journalist Nicole Wise combine personal and professional experience to take action against what they see as our overeager pursuit of perfection The clear comforting steps they prescribe to attack this rampant phenomenon will promote healthier and happier children and revitalize the parenting experience Blue-Eyed Boy Robert Timberg,2014-07-24 Acclaimed journalist Robert Timberg s extraordinary long awaited memoir of his struggle to reclaim his life and find his calling after being severely burned as a young Marine lieutenant in Vietnam In January 1967 Robert Timberg was a short timer counting down the days until his combat tour ended He had thirteen days to go before he got to go back home to his wife in Southern California That homecoming would eventually happen but not in thirteen days and not as the person he once was The moment his vehicle struck a Vietcong land mine divided his life into before and after He survived barely with third degree burns over his face and much of his body It would have been easy to give up Instead Robert Timberg began an arduous and uncertain struggle back not just to physical recovery but to a life of meaning Remarkable as his return to health was he endured thirty five operations one without anesthesia just as remarkable was his decision to reinvent himself as a journalist and enter one of the most public of professions Blue Eyed Boy is a gripping occasionally comic account of what it took for an ambitious man aware of his frightful appearance but hungry for meaning and accomplishment to master a new craft amid the pitying stares and shocked reactions of many he encountered on a daily basis By the 1980s Timberg had moved into the upper ranks of his profession having secured a prestigious Nieman Fellowship at Harvard and a job as White House correspondent for The Baltimore Sun Suddenly his work brought his life full circle the Iran Contra scandal broke At its heart were three fellow Naval Academy graduates and Vietnam era veterans Oliver North Bud McFarlane and John Poindexter Timberg s coverage of that story resulted in his first book The Nightingale s Song a powerful work of narrative nonfiction that follows these three academy graduates and two others John McCain and Jim Webb from Annapolis through Vietnam and into the Reagan years In Blue Eyed Boy Timberg relates how he came to know and develop a deep understanding of these five men and how their stories helped him understand the ways the Vietnam War and the furor that swirled around it continued to haunt him and the nation as a whole as they still do even now nearly four decades after its dismal conclusion Like others of his generation Robert Timberg had to travel an unexpectedly hard and at times bitter road In facing his own life with the same tools of wisdom human empathy and storytelling grit he has always brought to his journalism he has produced one of the most moving and important memoirs of our time

Third World Child GG Alcock, 2014-08-15 GG Alcock s parents Creina and Neil were humanitarians who gave up comfortable lives to move to rural Zululand In a place called Msinga a dry rock strewn wilderness and one of the most violent places in Africa they lived and worked among the Mchunu and Mthembu tribes fighting for the rights of people displaced by the apartheid government s policy of forced removals They also fought against the corruption of police and government officials as well as local farmers which did not sit well with their white fellow citizens When GG was fourteen his father was assassinated by rival tribesmen GG s early life in rural Zululand in the 1970s and 80s can only be described as unique He and his brother Khonya both initially home schooled by their mother grew up as Zulu kids herding goats and playing with the children of their neighbours learning to speak fluent Zulu learning to become Zulu men under the guidance of Zulu elders and learning the customs and history of their adopted tribes Armed with their father s only legacy the skills to survive in Africa both young men were ultimately forced to move into the white world which was largely unknown to them In many ways GG Alcock s story mirrors that of many of his people the journey of a tribal society learning to embrace the first world He does not shy away from the violence and death that coloured his childhood years surrounded by savage faction fighting nor how they affected his adult life His story in Third World Child is one of heartbreak and tragedy and paradoxically of vibrant hope and compassion A restless energy and sardonic humour permeate his writing which is compelling in its honesty and spontaneity LIFE, 1969-05-09 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use The Liberation of Winifred Bryan Horner Elaine J. Lawless, 2018-03-05 This inspiring tale of grit and determination sprinkled with humor wit and a taste of irony is the story of Winifred Bryan Horner's journey from a life of domesticity on the family farm after World War II to becoming an Endowed Professor Her compelling story is one of a woman's fight for equal rights and her ultimate success at a time when women were openly deemed less than men in the professional world Winifred a professional writer and consummate storyteller known to friends and family as Win always assumed she would write her own memoir But after retiring from teaching she found that she could never find the time or inspiration to sit down and record the pivotal stories of her remarkable 92 years of life Colleague and mentee Elaine J Lawless devised a plan to interview Win about her life and allow her to tell stories with the intention that Win would edit the transcriptions into her memoir Over four months Elaine visited Win on Wednesdays to interview her about her life Sadly just one week after the conclusion of the final interview Win unexpectedly passed away before Elaine could give her the final transcripts With the support of Win's family Elaine set out to finish this book on Win's behalf Win's story is one that will inspire and resonate with women as they continue to work toward equality in the world That's So High School Leah Tucker, Ellie Bakker the heroine of That's So High School thought she knew everything about high school Her own high school experiences taught her some basic truths 1 high school romances never work out 2 bad yearbook pictures can haunt you for years to come and 3 prom is never as perfect as it should be In her eighth year of teaching history at her alma mater Ellie is constantly witness to these and other dramas of high school When she is reluctantly put in charge of planning the prom with a committee of eager students she becomes the subject of that drama As prom advisor Ellie is forced to relive some painful high school memories especially when her high school crush and her own prom let down the perfect Dr Steve Allen re-enters her life This heartbreaker cardiologist reminds her of the nerd she was in high school To make matters worse Ellie's sister Jill is determined to get Ellie married off before she reaches her dating expiration date This puts Ellie in another uncomfortable setting the dating scene In an effort to find the perfect date for this prom Ellie dives in to modern dating Humorous experiences with online dating speed dating and blind dating lead Ellie to reevaluate her beliefs high school and otherwise Life Itself Roger Ebert, 2011-09-13 Named one of the 100 greatest film books of all time by The Hollywood Reporter this singular warm hearted inspiring look at life itself is the best thing Mr Ebert has ever written Janet Maslin New York Times To make ourselves unhappy is where all crime starts We must try to contribute joy to the world That is true no matter what our problems our health our circumstances We must try I didn't always know this and am happy I lived long enough to find it out Roger Ebert was the best known film critic of his time He began reviewing films for the Chicago Sun Times in 1967 and was the first film critic ever to win a Pulitzer Prize He appeared on television for four decades In 2006 complications from thyroid cancer treatment resulted in the loss of his ability to eat drink or speak But with the loss of his voice Ebert became a more prolific and influential writer And in Life Itself he told the full dramatic story of his life and career In this candid personal history Ebert chronicled it all his loves losses and obsessions his struggle and recovery from alcoholism his marriage his politics and his spiritual beliefs He wrote about his years at the Sun Times his colorful newspaper friends and his life changing collaboration with Gene Siskel He shared his insights into movie stars and directors like John Wayne and Martin Scorsese This is a story that only Roger Ebert could tell filled with the same deep insight dry wit and sharp observations that his readers have long cherished Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey, 1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b/w illustrations Fat Kid's War F.K. Milton, New York Magazine, 1996-01-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Song of Sarah Charlene Pillow Little, 2011-07-01 For author Charlene Pillow Little the mirror on the wall reflected a sobering message As the signs of aging were obviously growing at a much higher rate than her 401 k she must act quickly but not for a face lift It was time for Sarah to set the record straight and go all the way back to the fifties to the time when she too was wrinkle free young and restless These memoirs are her own unmistakable voice talking about the good the bad and the not so pretty of her journey through life The Song of Sarah presents a touching personal story from 1937 to 2010 beginning with her birth in the thirties when the family physician arrives an hour late Her feisty grandmother assumes the role of emergency MD Growing up petite and scrawny in the fifties and always on the lookout for ways to change her name to the one she feels is truly hers she emerges from each hurdle stronger in character body and mind Though her childhood years were lived in an environment considered poverty stricken the hardships and circumstances served to define more clearly and purposefully certain ambitions and values Told with candor and humor her story is more about the human spirit that wills itself not only to survive but triumph over the long haul a spirit that doesn't accept the notion that life is over after the fiftieth wedding anniversary
