his country Coll knows he should be suspicious of her motives but soon discovers that fighting his attraction might be the hardest battle he's ever fought Now Ginny's not sure she ever wants to leave Living history and experiencing it with all five senses was a dream come true but the last thing she expected was to be able to immerse herself in it completely and in the presence of Bonny Prince Charlie to boot However it isn't a man of royal blood who brings the past alive for her and strikes at the heart of her battered emotions Coll MacLeod reveals himself as a man who can bring her something her ex never could Confidence and pride in herself As she helps Prince Charlie evade the pursuit of the royalist militia Ginny discovers there is no escape from the yearning of her heart And maybe just maybe the realization that there is a man worth having after all
