After the early adopters embrace what you're selling, they are the ones who will sell it to the early majority - not you. And they will sell it poorly. (Moore talks at length about moving through the rest of the curve. I highly recommend his book.)

You must design a product that is remarkable enough to attract the early adopters - but is flexible enough and attractive enough that those adopters will have an easy time spreading the idea to the rest of the curve.
