- It was believed that working on the self was a way to 'get ones life together'
- Health practices also attracted people who wanted to replace the declining political energy associated with the 60's.
- Personal responsibility of health became hegemonic.
- First the ideological effects of the redefinition of the problem of health to lifestyle and solution to personal responsibility should not be underestimated.
- Second the ideology of individual responsibility for health contributed to middle class acceptance
- Third health practices in the 70's reflected and reinforced defining features of middle class culture – individual responsibility was key
- Neoliberalism
- Health talk was related to responsibility talk
