Leadership and Nursing John Daly,Sandra Speedy,Debra Jackson,2014-11-01 Leadership is fundamental to the nature of nursing to ensure the development of safe practice interdisciplinary relationships education research and ultimately the delivery of quality healthcare Leadership and Nursing Contemporary Perspectives 2e presents a global perspective of leadership issues within the Australian context It builds on the premise that nursing leadership is for all nurses not just those who are authorised to hold a position within an organisation In addition this book explores how leadership is not possible until one has an understanding of self and what motivates others The text is aimed at senior undergraduate and postgraduate nursing students making the transition to practice as well as professional nurses seeking to strengthen their clinical practice and governance Nine entirely new chapters exploring the most up to date leadership issues and themes including Leadership and its influence on patient outcomes Leadership Developing and sustaining self Indigenous leadership in nursing speaking life into each other s spirits Leadership and empowerment in nursing Leadership in the era of Inter professional education in healthcare Leading development of health policy Leadership and the role of Professional Organisations Leading nursing in the Academy Avoiding derailment Leadership strategies for identity reputation and legacy management OECD Public Governance Reviews Achieving Public Sector Agility at Times of Fiscal Consolidation OECD,2015-06-12 This publication supports reforms towards greater strategic agility in the public sector through the use of budgeting policy levers human resource management strategies and ICTs Leadership Matters in Catholic Education Sean Whittle,Quentin Wodon,2024-05-26 This edited collection is the first part of a two volume set which focuses on leadership in Catholic education settings in the United Kingdom It includes an overview of the importance of different types of leadership including servant leadership in understanding and framing Catholic school practice a critical survey of why leadership matters to ensuring the success of Catholic education and a discussion of what counts as the defining characteristics of leadership in Catholic education and how this relates to the aims or philosophy of Catholic education The chapters in this book draw from the insights and experiences of serving Catholic school leaders as well as from academics and researchers in Catholic education studies The final two chapters provide a comparative analysis for the United Kingdom in a global perspective using data from the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development OECD Together the chapters argue that there is an urgent need to find nurture and sustain outstanding leaders for Catholic schools and colleges Emotions and Leadership in Organizations and Educational Institutes Osman Titrek,Anna Stavicka,Ana Campina,Gozde Sezen-Gultekin,Carlos Francisco De Sousa Reis,2023-11-28 Emotion management is an important source of social capital and synergy for organizations Managers have a great role in the creation of this synergy A manager who can cope with their emotions indirectly contributes to organizational effectiveness This situation is especially important in human oriented organizations providing services rather than goods such as educational institutions Leadership is a process of social influence which maximizes the efforts of others towards the achievement of a goal Leadership stems from social influence rather than authority or power In terms of system approach the input output process and feedback of educational organizations are always related to human behaviors Therefore organizations must address the nature of human beings in all of their managerial processes Although organizations in which people are at the foreground try to continue their functioning on a rational and formal basis throughout the managerial process they sometimes have to manage emotional and informal phenomena In this case there is a need for managers and school leaders who can shape the rationale in line with the requirements of human nature What is expected from this administrator is that they do not ignore human needs and emotions while providing the management of educational institutions For this reason these managers should be leaders rather than executives who only work in a formal framework of organization management Moreover principals and teachers should also be leaders in all educational processes Emotions are the main catalyst of positive organizational culture Leaders can create an effective organizational culture with the main source of positive emotions between employers Positive emotions also motivate employees for organizational purposes If a leader wishes to create and maintain an effective organizational culture it is essential to support positive behavior and emotional climate in their institutes and schools Leaders school managers and teachers therefore need to develop emotion management abilities Educational organizations need to shape their organizational culture climate and psychology to support their leaders in efficiently managing their employees emotions Up to now this topic has been usually addressed as the main catalyst and a sub dimension of emotional intelligence Moreover current evidence classifies social and empathy skills as other sub dimensions of emotional intelligence For this reason this collection of peer reviewed articles will draw attention to the contemporary term emotional management and contribute to educational fields by means of exploring the relationship between emotions and leadership Herald of the Star ,1916
