

Analysis Of The Book The Necklace

The necklace She removed the wraps which covered her shoulders before the glass, so as once more to see herself in all her glory. But suddenly she uttered a cry. She no longer had the necklace around her neck! Her husband, already half undressed, demanded: What is the matter with you? She turned madly toward him: I have I have I ve lost Mme. Forestier s necklace. He stood up, distracted. What! how? impossible! And they looked in the folds of her dress, in the folds of her cloak, in her pockets, everywhere. They did not find it. After a sleepless night, her husband decided to tell Mme. Forestier the truth. But She did not agree with him. She is a vain person, and she worried that when Mme. Forestier know it will spread everywhere. She did not want anybody know that the glory of her success in the ball was not belong to her. Then they went from jeweler to jeweler with the box which had contained the necklace, trying to find if there is any possible they can find a necklace which look like the same as the one they lost. They have searched every jeweler in the whole city after three days. Unfortunately, there was no any necklace looks like the one they lost. In the three days, her husband always tried to persuade her to tell the truth to Mme. Forestier. However, she felt very desprate, and she began to think about her husband s advice. You have to write to your friend, said her husband, that you have lost the necklace during the

Webb,2013-10-21 An excerpt from the beginning of the first chapter 1 Introduction Literary composition is the art of expressing thought or feeling effectively by words The thinking must be done first ideas and opinions must be formed before the attempt is made to put them into words the writer should know beforehand exactly what he means Hence interest and experience in a subject are essential to him What he wants as Professor Raleigh remarks is not an abundance of facts so much as the connexions between the facts It is the connexion of things with each other the ability to go from point to point which marks literature Thus the art of composition is governed by certain principles and methods which the young writer must learn and carry into practice in order to write well The aim of the following pages js to explain the most important of these principles with special reference to the writing of Essays 2 Classification of Essays Essays may be divided into four classes I Narrative Essays or Essays that consist of the narration of some event Such events may be historical or legendary occurrences or they may be stories true or imaginary or they may be biographical sketches of some well known person II Descriptive Essays or Essays that consist of the description of some place or thing These may be animals plants fruits or minerals towns ports ships and buildings of all kinds as towers temples museums bridges countries islands mountains seas rivers canals aspects of nature or lastly manufactured articles III Reflective Essays or Essays that consist of reflection upon some topic which is generally of an abstract nature These topics may be habits qualities feelings and capacities or they may be subjects of a social and political character IV Expository Essays or Essays that consist of the exposition or explanation of subjects These may be comprised under the head of first institutions industries occupations and phrase of life secondly scientific topics and thirdly literary topics     How Stories Heal Robert J. Nash, Sydnee Viray, 2014 How Stories Heal illustrates the value of personal narrative writing Referring to this type of writing as the turn to the subjective I or to me search research this is a book about Scholarly Personal Narrative SPN writing actually written in an SPN style This book will satisfy a huge need in higher education and scholarship for students who are writing theses and doctoral dissertations     Our Stories Matter Robert J. Nash, Sydnee Viray, 2013 Our Stories Matter explains and exemplifies the methodology of Scholarly Personal Narrative SPN writing for marginalized underrepresented and previously disappeared students at all levels of higher education Presently no book looks at the whys and hows of scholarly personal narrative writing that focuses on this particular audience of underrepresented students SPN writing has its origins in early slave narratives 1960s feminist liberation stories religio spiritual autobiographies existential postmodern and postcritical theory and memoir autobiographies of victimization and victory Our Stories Matter attempts to fill a huge vacuum in the literature on the art and craft of personal narrative writing for undergraduates and graduates because it appeals to a hugely expanding previously underrepresented audience It also provides faculty with a substantive pedagogical rationale and a writer's guide for teaching this kind of scholarly research not just to underrepresented students but to all students who are ready to tell their stories in their own original creative ways     Literary Essay Katie
